Julie -- "Do you have any other ideas?"

7/3/72
RN:rmw

"Eye On Nixon" -- everyone seems to think it is pretty good. Check with Maury Stans and also with Bob Haldeman when he is back - don't bother him for a few days.

What I have in mind is a very good idea I think -- I am trying to stay away from financial contributors for obvious reasons. Julie could send copy of "Eye on Nixon - with best wishes, Julie Eisenhower"

It should go to the 100,000 group - go to the top people.

Billy Graham - he mentioned it to me -- the political list should be looked over very carefully -- you should work on that.

Norman Vincent Peale - people who will talk about it.

It should just be sent to people who are top financial contributors who are "known" Nixon supporters.

Don't send one to people like the Drowns/ or the Roger Johnsons/ but to important people in the campaign.

Just buy the books and send them out. 100 or so -- or maybe a few more.

Cabinet? -- maybe but maybe not because then you get into the WH staff thinking they should have one.

Campaign oriented -- Billy Graham needs one right now.

Norman Vincent Peale - should get one right now.
