Miss Rose Mary Woods
Personal Secretary to President Nixon
The White House, Washington, D. C.

Dear Miss Woods:

Since he doesn't want his name
used & they are his complaints - not mine, Ronald

We are extremely delighted over President Nixon's greatest overwhelming Victory in the history of United States politics.

With the exception of taking off four days to enter the hospital for blood transfusions, I labored for President Nixon until November 6th.

Two aggravations marred my enthusiasm slightly. First, both my Mother and I have donated financially to the campaign, long before the G.O.P. Convention met. Then two weeks before the election, we each received letters signed by Mr. Stans that all who contribute $15.00 or more will receive an "Official 1972 Presidential Campaign Medal", bronze.

We feel this is unfair to us who have contributed when the finances were needed the most.

Second: In an appeal for money in a letter signed by Mr. Jeremiah Milbank, Jr. he promised all people regardless whether they contribute or merely send a letter that they will work in the campaign, he will mail them a G.O.P elephant pin. As far as I know, no one has received said pin. We managed to obtain three G.O.P. elephant pins, when people who worked in the campaign (volunteers) saw the pin, they requested that I give them one, so I did. I know of 12 of my co-workers, all volunteers who deserve such a pin, headquarters employee told me I would have to pay for the pins. I refused to spend any more money. What irks me the most, is that the rich, paid G.O.P. employees lied each and every time that I either visited one of the headquarters or called one of them.

They were always out of meaningful campaign material: President Nixon photograph badges, G.O.P. elephant pins, ball-point pens, Nixon-Agnew photograph badges, plates or platters, playing cards, 1968-1972 (set of two) bronze medallions, plastics, etc.

They claimed that they received only a few of each - they did not know where all the material disappeared - a lack of communications between Dade County and Washington, D. C. The truth is these rich and paid G.O.P. employees engaged in a mass theft of above mentioned materials. I have seen them stuffing their pockets, handbags with expensive campaign materials. On November 6th I walked into one of the headquarters while a lone w man employee was stuffing a large box with the mentioned campaign G.O.P. materials , she calmly carried the box out to her expensive sports car and placed the box in the trunk of the car.

In view of the text of this letter, you do not have my permission to use my name in the event that you should want to follow up on my complaints. I cannot afford to make any enemies.

You can be assured of our continued support. God bless you.

Sincerely,

(Sg.) Ted Manell

What irks me the most, is that the rich, paid G. O. P. employees lied each and every time that I either visited one of the headquarters or called one of them.

They were always out of meaningful campaign material: President Nixon photograph badges, G. O. P. elephant pins, ball-point pens, Nixon-Agnew photograph badges, plates or platters, playing cards, 1968-1972 (set of two) bronze medallions of the convention nominations, bronze medallions set in heavy plastic, etc.

They claimed, that they received only a few of each - they did not know where all the material disappeared - a lack of communications between Dade County and Washington, D. C. The truth is these rich and paid G. O. P. employees engaged in a mass theft of above mentioned materials.
