~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

MEMORANDUM FOR ROSE WOODS

From: William E. Timmons WT

I am forwarding the attached endorsement letter for signature. Murray Chotiner has approved the letter, however, because of redistricting in New York I feel this endorsement letter is unique. Dan Button (R-NY) is running against incumbent Sam Stratton (D-NY). Of the two, Sam has been a better friend of the President's both verbally and vote wise.

No doubt Button will play the endorsement letter up in the District and alienate Stratton. Quite frankly, this one bothers me and wonder what your thoughts are.

Dear Suzie:

As usual I want something: a signed photo of Ted Agnew to put next to the President's in my office. How's that for brass? Oh well, life's a ball if you "live" it - I have no damn shame at all.

When you get a chance, (pause for laughter) let me hear all the latest from "on high" - by that I refer to Joe, Luie, et al. - they're my real "on high" - I only use the pictures to put down these damn "pressure-cooker Republicans" who pretend party affiliation since Lincoln - by God, I was born and raised a G.O.P. and it galls me to see the mess of "Johnnie come lately's".

Keep on swinging gal and dig the words of Sinatra's record - "I did it my way" - reminds me of Dick Nixon and Joe Woods and particularly "Suzie Slush" "Fred Astaire's".
