MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 4, 1971

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
ALMANNING
E.O. 12356, Section 1.1
By MAN NARS, Date 3/25/83

MEMORANDUM FOR:

ALEXANDER P. BUTTERFIELD

FROM:

JON M. HUNTSMAN JMH

SUBJECT:

Trip to Los Angeles

Alex, this is only a brief memorandum of our previous conversation regarding my trip to Los Angeles, Friday and Saturday, May 7th-8th. I truly wish it was not necessary for me to make this trip, however, the current conditions of my business on the home front necessitate that I be involved with the critical meetings with our bankers on Friday, the 7th. As you are aware, even though I have resigned as an officer and director, I am still the largest single stockholder and major financial backer -- therefore, the banks look to me to insure backup support for all company loans and financial planning. I will travel commercial airlines leaving Thursday night and returning on the "Red-Eye Express" Saturday night. I shall leave my phone number where I can be reached at any time with my secretary. I am covering all of the day-to-day needs with David Hoopes and will certainly go over the more critical concerns of the week-end with you personally.

Thank you, Alex.

cc: Dr. David Hoopes

MEMORANDUM FOR: RON WALKER

FROM: JOHN R. BROWN III

SUBJECT: Rich Evans

Last night I had the occasion to visit a bar named the Aquarius located at the corner of Pennsylvania and 25th. On being introduced to one of the owners of the bar, named Rich Evans, the subject came up that he is an advanceman for Senator Muskie and that he's thinking of selling his interest in the bar in order to spend the next two years working fulltime in the advance operation for Muskie. In the couple of minutes that expired before the individual who introduced us blew my cover by mentioning that I was on the White House staff, Rich mentioned a few things that might be of interest to you:

1. Evans indicated that he hoped to eventually head the advanceman operation for Muskie.
2. He mentioned that he had not advanced for the recent European trip but that he had spent a couple weeks in Los Angeles for Muskie's recent trip there.
3. He alluded to the fact that they are planning future visits to South America and Africa.
4. After finding I was on the White House staff, he clammed up in response to my next question. He alluded to the fact that I should know the answer as a result of our intelligence efforts.

I don't know whether this is of any assistance to you, but I pass it on for your information.

P. S. The Aquarius is a pretty swinging place to go and I recommend it highly.
