THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 23, 1973

Dear Mrs. Eisenhower:

It was requested that you note and pass along to Bebe Rebozo the following from the February 23 News Summary:

- -- Ohio woman wants Saxbe to apologize to US canine population because of reference to draft dodgers as "dogs." She called it "an insult to an animal which is faithful to its master unto death," adding "many have served well in war," and asked Saxbe to find some other suitable epithet to call "these sniveling creatures who ran away when they were needed."

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Bruce A. Kehrli
Staff Secretary

Mrs. Julie Eisenhower

EYES ONLY

MEMORANDUM FOR: DAVE PARKER
FROM: BRUCE KEHRLI BK
SUBJECT: Cahill Appointment

The attached memorandum to the President has been reviewed. Referring to the note about Cahill wanting an appointment with the President, it was noted that the President will see Cahill if Bush recommends it. Of course, the President shouldn't get into a primary fight, however, unless there is a bad scandal -- Cahill is a much better candidate than Sandman. Charlie is a good friend but it was noted that he may be too far right for New Jersey statewide.

Dave, this information has been passed to George Bush with the request that he contact you regarding the schedule proposal.
