To: Mr. David N. Parker

From: H. R. Haldeman

Subject: Political Appearances by Richard in Julie and Tricia

We should proceed with the idea of having Tricia and Julie, and Mrs. Nixon, do very a few events, as to political affairs around the country. Whatever to handle this is to always have a Cabinet Officer or other good speaker on the program. The presence of Tricia, Julie or Mrs. Nixon will hype the publicity to an enormous capel.

Julie has worked out a very good formula where she does a T. V.
Interview in such cases and Mrs. Nixon and Tricia should follow with T. V. Ideas. Moreover, the big receptions are probably also a good idea, particularly one in the hinterlands because they mean a great deal to people who are not in Washington.

In order for all of this to be successful, however, we need to move right into having the chief work in scheduling better events for Julie, Tricia and Mrs. Nixon about the country.

This is top priority and you should move on it immediately. Please give me a report of your progress by noon this Friday.

cc: Mr. Dwight L. Chapin
