MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT ^{*}HALDEMAN

FR: HERB ^{*}KLEIN

RE: LOG # 651H

We have had a working relationship with the ^{}Republican National Committee's two new publications MONDAY and THE REPUBLICAN similar to that I had with Frank ^{}Leonard during the campaign, except that Frank now works for the RNC. This office helped to develop the concept of the publication and is checking points for Frank concerning policy and tone.

Since Frank began MONDAY, I have provided him with a schedule of events, including key speeches by Cabinet and Sub-Cabinet members, which he may wish to use for his summary "Week of (date)..Who..What..Where..When." Frank tells me this feature of upcoming events has received more favorable comments than any other single part of the publication.

We have almost daily communications with Frank when he is in town. Our system generally works this way: Early in the week when Frank comes to town, we give him items from the current week's schedule which may make good short articles for MONDAY (Example: this week I suggested he check with Agriculture for more information on Hardin's Listening Conferences). On Thursday, after we have gone
