MEMORANDUM FOR KEN SMITH

Attached is a memorandum which Barbara Preve sent to John Ehrlichman enclosing a copy of Ken Rietz's invitation to Mr. Ehrlichman to appear before a gathering of young people at the Convention on Sunday, August 20, 1972.

I get the distinct impression from Miss Preve's note that she and Mr. Rietz were under the impression that our office was ignoring their invitation. You and I know that that is not true. On July 14, I sent to you a memorandum requesting the basic information we needed in order to consider an invitation, which incidentally had been omitted from Mr. Rietz's original memorandum.

Since I had not heard from you, I called you on August 7 at which time you gave me the information I had requested. Having received what I considered to be the basic information needed to have Ehrlichman consider this proposal, I presented the invitation to him on August 7. On August 8 I wrote you another memorandum and accepted the invitation on Mr. Ehrlichman's behalf.

It is very apparent to me that the slippage and the delay in responding to Mr. Rietz's initial memorandum was a result of two things: (1) A very incomplete invitation; and (2) a substantial delay in following up my memorandum requesting additional information.

How about squaring away Mr. Rietz and Miss Preve?

MEMORANDUM FOR       DAVE PARKER
FROM                    JOHN EHRlichman

In 1960 we set up a campaign trip to the Catskills at the strong recommendation of Nelson Rockefeller and Louie Lefkowitz to appeal to the Jewish vote in New York City. Thousands of New York (Bronx) Jewish voters are to be found in the big resort hotels of the Catskills over Labor Day weekend. Short of stumping every street corner in the Bronx, this is the best way to reach them. We set up a motorcade among three hotels all within very short driving distance of one another where, with some advance work, big crowds could be assembled.

We had programmed a number of popular Jewish personalities (Eddie Fisher, etc.) to travel with and introduce the candidate at these various stops.

It was the Rockefeller organization's very strong feeling then that this is the most effective kind of campaigning we could do to impact the New York City vote. Whether that is still a valid judgment I don't know.

I have no doubt with the President going there as President now that quite an enormous and enthusiastic turnout would be possible with careful advance work.

SUBJECT: HAWAII TRIVIA

The 1960 result I mentioned was Kennedy 92,410;
Nixon 92,295 - a margin of 115, and a swing of 58 votes would have put the state in our column.
We should have worked a little harder.

If you are asked about complacency, the fact that Hawaii taught us a lesson in its first Presidential vote - and that you remember it - should work well locally.
