FG6-11-1 / Ehrlichman, John

November 25, 1970

Dear Colonel Furlong:

Thanks very much for your letter of November 16th concerning the Young Life program. I'm sure you know that our daughter, Jan, and our son, Tom, are very active in this program. Each has gained from their Young Life experience and we continue to support their involvement.

In your letter you requested an appointment to discuss, among other things, "a request for your support". If by support you mean financial assistance, I'm afraid I am already committed to the limit of my capacity. We are extremely active in the support of Adventure Unlimited, also a youth activity involving our church. Since I'm already committed financially, I wonder if a meeting would really be a productive use of your time?

Yours sincerely,

John D. Ehrlichman
Assistant to the President
for Domestic Affairs
