Dear John:

I am hosting a brunch for "Student Leaders for the President", a division of the Young Voters for the President. It will be at the Fontaine Bleau Hotel, in Miami Beach at 10:30 A.M., Sunday the 20th of August.

This is a group of outstanding college students from around the country, it includes the student body presidents of such prestigious institutions as the Univ. of Nebraska, Univ. of Mississippi, Univ. of Georgia, Univ. of Southern Calif., Univ. of Col., Univ. of New Mexico, Univ. of Alabama, Old Dominion College, Brandies Univ., Bradley Univ., Baylor Univ. and many more. All of them are actively working for President Nixon on their campuses.

I would like to invite you to attend this reception. I think you will enjoy meeting these young people, and could encourage them in their efforts on the President's behalf at their campuses.

Sincerely,

Gerald R. Ford

Dear Ray:

With the Hawaiian Re-election Committee in your hands, I don't see how we could lose the Islands.

Your good work on my recent trip to Honolulu was very much appreciated -- and proved most fruitful. It was a pleasure meeting your leaders at breakfast and to have a chance to visit with them informally.

Thanks again for a very successful day.

Best personal regards.

Yours sincerely,

John D. Ehrlichman

Dear John,

Margaret and I returned from the Miami convention by way of San Francisco. This was our first experience at a political convention on the national level and it was truly exciting.

The morning that you addressed the Washington delegation, I had hopes of spending a few minutes with you. Unfortunately, I had a ten thirty meeting with the finance group at the Doral Hotel and had to run off. There will be other times however, but at the moment we are all so busy working on the re-election of the President it is hard to find time to do other things.

Looking forward to seeing you soon.

Best regards,

Claude Bekins
