Dear Tom:

Many thanks for your note of the third. I've been on the road since it arrived, but I appreciate your moral support and, of course, your kind if self-serving comments about the X Trojans on the staff. But I'm a Bruin too! Keep me off that fund-raising list!

Best personal regards.

Yours sincerely,

John D. Ehrlichman

Dear John:

A brief note to intrude on what happens to be one of the world's most busy schedules, and to express our appreciation indirectly to Newsweek for the publicity regarding the number of Trojans on the White House staff.

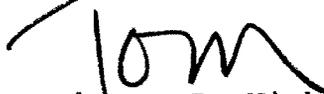

I feel complimented that Mr. Nixon saw a sufficient quality in so many Trojans to put them in such key positions.

The reporting was obviously not in the depth it could have been, in that Ehrlichman and Halde- man are designated as graduates of USC and class- mates at that.

I know that you are a Washington and Stanford man and that Bob is a Bruin. In any event, we are complemented to claim both of you guys too, and will be happy to add you to our Alumni Fund solici- tation program this year. As you know, it is cochaired by our other alumnus not mentioned in the article, the lovely and gracious Mrs. Richard Nixon.

Good luck on your endeavors and we'll be sitting up with you in spirit next Tuesday evening watching the returns.

Cordially,

Thomas P. Nickell, Jr.

Dear Professor Grub:

Thank you very much for your thoughtful note of November 27 in which you expressed interest in the election in the State of Washington in 1974.

It was most kind of you to write and offer your assistance in campaigning on my behalf; however, I really have no aspirations to elective office. I am sure I won't be running for the Senate, but please know that I am grateful for your offer.

Best regards.

Yours sincerely,

John D. Ehrlichman
