Wednesday, February 16.

President spent most of the day, till 3:30, at Camp David, working on his China briefing. Called several times just to check in and to review to plans for departure and for the Hawaii and Guam stops, mainly the question of whether he had to speak, which he does not want to do on arrival, but will have a very brief comment on departure from each place. He got down here, met with Ehrlichman and Kleindienst, and got his hair cut, did Dr. Riland, etcetera, to get ready to go. He had me in for a little while, just on a general wrap-up of odds and ends before departure, cleaning up a few Ambassadorial appointments, etcetera.

End of February 16.
