Saturday, March 25.

President was at Camp David. Called once, mainly to get an analysis of the press conference, and got into the subject of how often he should do it on TV. Feels that we need to make news and that we should have done this one probably on television, which I've been pushing all along. He thinks that we get more out of it in that way and, of course, he's absolutely right.

End of March 25.
