Saturday, July 15.

The President called today to check up on things. Reviewed the Wallace problem which was a principal matter now. I went over the facts with him as reported by Dent, et al. Which add up to a confirmation that there is a move to put him on a balance but an opportunity to turn it off because this guy Beader, who is putting up the money, is apparently a pro-Nixon Republican who thinks he's doing this for the President's benefit. LaRue is going to meet with him Sunday evening and try to get it straightened out.

End of July 15.
