Thursday, September 14.

Back into schedule plans again today, as he goes over odds and ends that he thinks need to be done. Likes the idea of Camp David on Tuesday night, and the staff planning meeting on Wednesday night for dinner. Got some input from Rizzo and Rockefeller, both of whom he met with today. Rizzo wants to motorcade the heart of Philadelphia, not the suburbs. Rockefeller, in the other direction, wants to do Westchester, Nassau, instead of the city. Agreed that he'd do a TV documentary as the wrap-up with about eight minutes at the end for the President. Wants the Astrodome to be a one hour television variety show with the President doing fifteen minutes at the end. Wants to try a motorcade across Illinois and Ohio for the small town thing. Do a Polish group in Buffalo.

We had some discussion on the Kissinger-Rogers problem, because of laying the plans for Henry's return tomorrow night. Rogers still saying he wants to see the President to complain about Kissinger not filling him in. President doesn't want to see him, so is putting it off until next Monday, if at all. I'm just going to hold up and do nothing unless Rogers calls me back.

End of September 14.
