Sunday, December 17.

The President called a couple of times, mainly to see what his schedule was for tomorrow, because he decided he wanted to go up to Camp David. He and Pat went on up early in the afternoon after the church service, and they're planning to come back on Monday. Shultz called to say that Ed David had declined the AEC job because we didn't meet his conditions, and is going to move out of government. Shultz rambled on about some other things, his concerns.
