Friday, July 11.

A really loaded day. Lots of appointments, meetings, etc. Called LBJ during our session at noontime to invite him to Cape for moon launch, and also to California to dedicate Lady Bird Forest on his birthday. Good session at breakfast with Mansfield. Then called Bryce in at lunch time to discuss whole surtax project. Looks like it will work out okay on basis of President's setting it up with Russell, Long, and Mansfield. President fairly impatient with Bryce for once again letting him do all the work.

Called me in to session with college presidents regarding unrest. Not much gained, but President held forth on all his theories regarding need for goals, etc. They all agreed.

Flew into Camp David late afternoon, just Bebe and I along. Had Hank come up in car. No contact with President after we arrived.
