White House Church - took the family. No word from President in the afternoon, until dinner time. He called then, back on the subject of follow through on press conference game plan. Really cranked up, wants report at 8:45 tomorrow. I'm sure he's convinced that nothing has been done – and I'm sure he's eighty percent right. Real problem to crank up all the troops on each one of these things, and impossible to guess which ones he'll zero in on. Problem was no good coverage in Post, Times or Star today. We had a big effort on for backup editorials, but there weren't any here. Also he's still concerned that he didn't do it at night.
