

H. R. Haldeman Diaries Collection, January 18, 1969 – April 30, 1973

National Archives and Records Administration, Online Public Access Catalog Identifier: 7787364

Saturday, November 1.

President at Camp David. Several phone calls. Wants full follow-up on last night's speech - several specific ideas. Very upset about overreaction to Court integration decision. Doesn't want our people shouting that we're going to enforce.

Called in the afternoon - very relaxed, said well, the baby's been born - worked until 4:00 this morning, have final draft. Kissinger had gone up, after meeting with us in the morning. Had been pleased with direction speech was going yesterday and much more so today. Says it is really good.

We spent most of day on staff reorganization, trying to work out all the details, Harlow and Moynihan to become Counselors, I had to sell to Harlow. All now set. Will announce Tuesday.