Monday, June 1.

Back to DC at 3:00. President spent the day at the house, so we got some work done at the office. He did call once about a story on Wallace probably winning in Alabama on Tuesday.

Had me up for a while on the plane. Nothing in particular. Wanted schedule clear through Wednesday night, but this was already pretty well done. In a pretty good mood - did say though he thought he would not come out for 4th of July, can't afford to be gone ten days at that time. We'll have to try to talk him out of that.

Good weekend. Really helps to get a change and to spread people around a little. Kissinger still pretty uptight - but he really enjoys California. Wants to take his kids next time.

Lousy Time cover story today, on me and Ehrlichman and Kissinger and Mitchell.
