Sunday, August 2.

President at home all day - I likewise. He did call, to review the week. Felt we had been lucky to get major story out of press conference regarding Middle East and then a big development the next day. Had talked to Randy Scott, Billy Graham, et al., who all thought press conference had been excellent - no particular point, just liked the mood and feeling of general command.

President felt it was wise to hit the West in prime time.
