Friday, November 6.

And more reaction. NSC filled most of the morning. He semi-canceled Key Biscayne plan for this afternoon - holed up in EOB, calling for more statistics, called a junior staff meeting to give them the pitch - decided at the last minute to go to Key Biscayne after all.

Brooded over and over regarding political meeting and decided to have it tomorrow, hauling everyone down to Florida for the day. Just can't get himself away from the subject. Afraid to let down for fear he'll have left some base uncovered - and just can't stop thinking or talking about it. If tomorrow's meeting doesn't wrap it up, I think I'll confront him directly.

On plane he rewrote the whole mailer regarding analysis, then called me at Key Biscayne to change it again - this time to a direct attack on the press by him. Bad idea, but I have Buchanan working on it.
