SUBJECT: Disposition of National Security Action Memoranda

After review of the National Security Action memoranda issued 1961 through 1968, the President has directed that the following disposition be made:

1. The following memoranda will continue in force until further notice:

50	258	353
55	261	358
143	269	359
144	272	360
197	303	363
199	307	365
201	316	367
210	344	369
235	346	370
252	347	372

~~SECRET~~

2. Each NSAM listed in the attachment should be reviewed by the NSC Group or department indicated to determine (a) whether it remains the authority for active programs and should be confirmed as written, (b) whether it can now be considered inactive because it has been subsumed in established programs, or (c) whether it should be updated or consolidated with other guidance and re-issued.

All initial addressees of each NSAM should participate in each review.

3. All other NSAMs will be considered inactive as of this date. They have fulfilled their initial purpose, been subsumed in subsequent programs, been overtaken by events or have already been rescinded.

4. If the assignment of an NSAM to the inactive list creates problems for any department or agency, please notify this office by February 21.

5. If a change is recommended in the assignment of responsibility for review, the committee or department assigned responsibility in this memo should notify this office immediately.
