Miss Rose Mary Woods
Office of President-Elect Richard M. Nixon
The Hotel Pierre
Fifth Avenue
New York City

My dear Miss Woods:

Miss Frick has asked me to write to you concerning the package which her chauffeur delivered to the doorman of Mrs. Nixon's residence on Fifth Avenue last week. Although the package was wrapped as a Christmas present, it was to have been opened at any time as it contains the first two volumes of the new Catalogue which the Frick Collection has just put out.

Knowing of Mrs. Nixon's interest in the Collection, Miss Frick felt that the Catalogue would be something which Mrs. Nixon would like to know about rather soon. Would it be possible for you to find out if the package was received? Thank you ever so much. Miss Frick does not expect a thank-you note but just didn't want to have it go astray.

May I congratulate you most warmly on your appointment as our President-Elect's personal secretary? I was so pleased to see the notice of this. It is such an important job and I could not imagine anyone else filling it.

Sincerely yours,

Julia B. Egan

Secretary to Miss Helen C. Frick
