Dear Cave Men:

For your information and file you will find attached the 1970 list of our Cave Man Camp members, together with their latest addresses and telephone numbers as we have them. If there are any changes, could you let me know.

Also, I would like to advise that I have appointed Bob Swain, Chairman of a newly established, long overdue and greatly needed Committee, the Cave Man Membership Committee. His fellow Committee Members are George Johnson and Larry Kimpton. The functions of the Committee are twofold: those of a conventional membership committee, to pass on prospective candidates for inclusion in the Camp, as suggested by our present members, but more importantly to find us some congenial new members for Cave Man. Therefore, if you have any suggestions for new members, would you please get in touch with the Committee.

Sincerely,

Allan Hoover
Captain

Dear Miss Woods:

Here is another of my Bohemian Club Cave Man communications. Should the President have any suggestions for guests this summer we will be very glad to hear of them, and they would be taken care of in the proper Cave Man style.

With best wishes, I am,

Gracious Father - we enter into thy presence today with plenty of needs. We are aware that many of these needs are the result of our neglect of Thee, our failure to maintain a close harmony with Thy will revealed in Scripture. Please, once again forgive us as we make confession of our sins.

Father, check our motives for being here this Easter morning. Humble each of us wherein our pride makes us want to be seen by others. Calm our curiosity which tempts us to come to see others. Instead help us to put all distractions out of our minds to truly worship Thee in spirit and in truth. May we not make blasphemy of Thy name by pretending to worship when our thoughts and hearts are far from Thee.

We ask that Thou wilt meet the personal needs of every single person here. Give us enough cares and hurts in life to keep us humble, realizing our total dependence upon Thee. And give us enough joys and blessings in life to sense the certainty of Thy divine love and care.

Thou hast instructed us to pray for our leaders - all those in positions of public trust. We pray particularly for the President of the United States. Fortify him to walk forward doing what he knows is your will -- even in the face of criticism. Give him patience, wherein right action does not produce immediate results. Well up within him constant compassion for human need -- wherever it may be. Provide that flexibility that is needed to change whatever course once seemed right but now has proven to be wrong. Anoint him with the wisdom you gave to Solomon of old - to discern the ethical black from white and to distinguish those subtle shades of grey when no perfect way is to be found. And finally, Father, equip him spiritually for his tasks which are often superhuman tasks -- giving him a strength that is a superhuman strength which comes to all those who put their trust in Thee.

Hear our prayer which we pray in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ.

Miss Rose Mary Wood
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Rose Mary:

I know no list was made public following the party and I will be glad to so advise Elmer Bobst if you like. Considering the pleasure it would give him and that it would not get to the press through Elmer--and likely be no interest to them now anyway--you may feel you can have someone send a copy.

Cordially,

Dear Elmer:

In talking with Bob Gray today he mentioned that you would like to have a list of the people who attended your 85th Birthday Dinner at the White House. I am enclosing a copy of the list showing the reasons for the very few regrets received.

I hope you and Dodo are having a relaxing and/or fun time in Florida and look forward to seeing you when you return North.

With my fondest personal regards to you both,

Sincerely,

Rose Mary Woods
