THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Dear Sammie 2:30 # PM.

As I look back on the greatest landslide victory in history I realize such a victory was not built in a day or a few weeks of a campaign.

Years of support from loyal friends
made it all possible - Your firmness in victory and defeat was a major factor in making the results of November 7 possible

For that and many other acts of kindness I shall always be grateful -

Your loyalty
and friendship will always have a special place in my heart -

December 19, 1971

Dear Norman

It was not until I returned to the White House that I learned from Julie of the special things you did to make our visit to Marble Collegiate such a memorable one -

The photograph in the program was taken on the wedding day three years ago - And the organist played the same music as we left the sanctuary as he did on that day -

as Julie said -
"Only the Peales would have been so thoughtful."

Your prayer for the family was moving, your sermon eloquent, and above all your friendships cherished beyond description.

I only wish we could come more often!

From all the Nijms to all the Peales - our very best wishes for Christmas and the New Year

Paul

Steve

I am going to hand over the balance of the planning on the New York Trip to you since you will have to be on hand.

As of now -- they would like to have sandwiches on the plane on the way to New York so they won't have to have dinner until after the theatre.

Since they will be eating after the theatre - they would like to go to "21" and want to be downstairs (NOT upstairs) Mrs. Nixon does not like to be upstairs there.

After you are able to check out the theatre -- I will depend upon you to go ahead and get in touch with the manager or owner and get the tickets, etc.

OK?

Thanks

I would suggest that Julie be kept informed of each new plan -- or exactly what is being planned as it is essentially a celebration for their wedding anniversary. (You might want to tell "21" that is what they are celebrating -- and maybe they could have a cake that would make it sort of special for the kids.

I have no idea whether Tricia will be coming from Cambridge and meeting them in New York or what -- but her SS will be able to find out for you.
