Dear Milt Rose:

I certainly enjoyed talking with you last week and I do hope we will have the pleasure of seeing you before too long here in Washington.

The President has signed the papers which you enclosed with your letter of May 11, and they are being returned with this note.

With my warmest personal regards to Em and to you,

Sincerely,

Rose Mary Woods
Secretary to the President

Dear Rose:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation of yesterday afternoon, I am enclosing, herewith, six waivers of notice of Meeting of Board of Directors, in blank, to be signed by the Directors of The Elmer and Mamdouha Bobst Foundation, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Bobst, myself and the President. I also enclose two waivers of notice of Meeting of Members of this Foundation, which should be signed by the President since he is also a Member of the Foundation. These waivers will be held in reserve for use at such times as the Directors and/or Members meet. We shall have to have a Directors' meeting very shortly and I should, therefore, greatly appreciate it if you would obtain the President's signature on all of the proposed waivers and return them to me in the enclosed, stamped envelope.

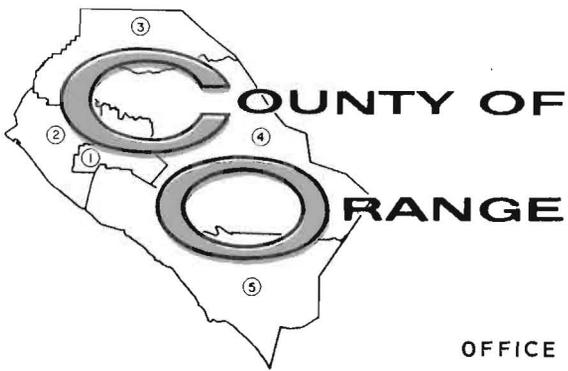

As I explained to you, I am also enclosing Internal Revenue Service Form 990 which, strictly speaking, requires the signature of all of the Directors. While a return on this form has been filed with an explanatory note to the effect that the President's signature was not available to us prior to the filing date, we are proposing to file a supplemental, or amended, return in order to comply with the requirements. If the President will be good enough to sign this return, where indicated, you can also return it to me in the enclosed envelope.

Thank you very much for your help in this. I hope that it will not inconvenience you or the President.

As ever,

FORMER MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, INC.

May 30, 1972

Dear Fellow Member:

Our second annual Alumni Day celebration was held on April 28th on the floor of the House of Representatives, and I am pleased to report the tradition is now well-established. Speaker Carl Albert, Majority Leader Hale Boggs, Minority Leader Gerald Ford, as well as other sitting Members, gave us a fine welcome, and representatives of Congresses from the 65th to the 90th responded appropriately. About 75 FMC members were present during the day, although not all were able to be present at the roll call. Enclosed is a copy of the Congressional Record report of the proceedings.

Our fellow-member, Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird, arranged for buses to take us to the State Department Conference Room for very informative off-the-record briefings by high officials of State and Defense Departments. They dealt mainly with the Far East, including the current situation in Vietnam, and the overall defense strength of the United States today, especially in relation to that of the Soviet Union.

We returned to the Hill for a delightful reception for members, spouses, and widows. Quite a few sitting Members dropped by -- considering it was a Friday evening in an election year!

Speaker Albert has written us: "It was great to have all the former Members of Congress who were able to come, in Washington for our Annual Reunion on April 28. I was . . . of course, delighted that it was enjoyed by others as much as by myself".

Enclosed is a list by States of the 400 who have joined FMC. You will note with regret that 17 of our members have passed away in these two years. The membership of seven more is suspended while they are running this year for the House or Senate. With almost 40 Senators and Representatives having announced that they are not running for re-election, plus the possible "casualties" on November 7th, there will be quite a few eligible recruits next January.

At our business meeting, six new members of the Board were elected: To fill out a one-year term, Jeffery Cohelan of California; to fill out a two-year term, Joseph Tydings of Maryland; for three-year terms, Joseph Barr of Indiana, Eugene Keogh of New York, Thomas Kuchel of California, and George Meader of Washington. The officers elected for 1972 are reported in the enclosed Record reprint.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

WALTER H. JUDD, President	JEFFERY COHELAN	GEORGE MEADER
JOSEPH D. TYDINGS, Vice-President	HOMER FERGUSON	A. S. MIKE MONRONEY
BEN REIFEL, Secretary	EUGENE J. KEOGH	HOWARD W. POLLOCK
JOSEPH W. BARR, Treasurer	THOMAS H. KUCHEL	ROBERT RAMSPECK

3083 Ordway Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20008 — (202) 362-6488

The fall reunion and briefings are planned for sometime after the November election.

A new Biographical Directory of the American Congress, 1774-1971, has been issued. As a former Member of Congress, you can obtain a copy by writing to the Joint Committee on Printing.

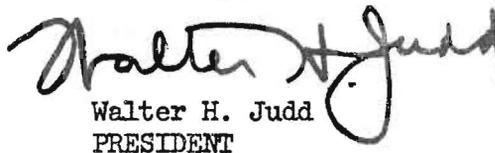

Our wives and the widows of all former Members of the Congress have formed a Women's Auxiliary of FMC. They got off to a flying start with 48 women attending an organizing luncheon held the same day as our meeting, and 169 enrolling as Charter Members. As their officers they elected: President, Mrs. Harold Hagen; Vice-President, Mrs. A. Sydney Herlong; Secretary, Mrs. Walter Judd; Treasurer, Mrs. John Foley.

During the current year we hope to emphasize activities that will preserve the associations and friendships established during our years of active service, develop a program to give our people greater appreciation of the history of the Congress and perhaps of some individual Congresses. We hope for the enactment of a resolution establishing an annual "Congress Day", (like Constitution Day, Flag Day, Law Day, etc.), possible holding of regional meetings, issuance of an occasional alumni bulletin or newsletter. Your Board welcomes your suggestions.

Most of you have sent your 1972 dues. A reminder slip is enclosed in case you haven't. Thanks.

With warm personal regards and every good wish, I am,

Sincerely,

Walter H. Judd
PRESIDENT

Auxiliary Formed at Reunion

By RUTH DEAN
Star Staff Writer

Old school grads have no monopoly on alumnae reunions as a group of former members of Congress, their wives and widows recently demonstrated.

In fact the distaff side of the aisle got so much into the spirit of things, when the Former Members of Congress, Inc., held their second annual reunion here a week ago, they formed their own auxiliary.

"We thought it would promote good relations and we could join in some of the activities planned for the men, like the State Department and Pentagon briefings they were invited to," observed the auxiliary's new president, Mrs. Harold C. Hagen, widow of the Minnesota congressman.

Mrs. Hagen said she felt "surprised and pleased" that a show of hands of the 98 charter members showed at least half were in favor of attending the briefings when they come next year.

Up to Date

Being brought up to date on current issues, she feels, would be a big help to former legislators' wives if their experience is like her own. "When you're back in the States, you're often asked to speak on what is happening in Congress and in Washington," she said.

The spadework for organizing the auxiliary was done by Mrs. Hagen and Mrs. Walter Judd, wife of the former Minnesota congressman who is this year's president of Former Members of Congress.

Actually, it was former Rep. Brooks Hays of Arkansas, who relinquished his presidency of Former Members to run for Congress this year from North Carolina, and Judd who got the ball rolling for the ladies. They invited the widows to join their wives for the first reunion last fall.

And it was at the ladies' persuasion they changed the date for their second reunion from fall to spring to coincide with the week of the Congressional Club's annual First Lady's brunch, always held in April. The brunch was held on a Thursday and the Former Members reunion was the following day.

After forming the auxiliary at a luncheon meeting in the Rayburn Building, the women adjourned to the Ladies Gallery of the House of Representatives to witness two hours of reminiscences by the Former Members for which the House recessed in their honor.

The auxiliary then had its own "reunion" at a film showing in the Ways and Means Committee room. The film, made by Congressional Club members for their Founders' Day brunch last February, evoked laughs and memories.

Directed by the club's talented Mrs. Robert McClory, the film of the club's history and current activities was done silent film style. Club manager Anne Spaeth's husband Larry, a professional pianist, supplied the lively piano accompaniment in the darkened committee room.

Terrible 80th

Afterwards the women had time to visit before walking over to the Cannon Building Caucus Room for a reception, the final get-together of the day with the Former Members.

"This looks like a reunion of the various Congress

Clubs," said Mrs. Ralph Harvey who flew up with her husband from their Indiana farm. "You know we came in 'the terrible 80th', the one Truman talked about," she said, as Mrs. Clifford McIntire of Maine, joined in the laughter.

Mrs. John N. Robison, Jr. of Kentucky, whose husband had helped 102-year-old former Rep. Maurice Thatcher of Kentucky to the podium at the House session earlier in the day, commented: "I think this is a great idea for those of us who live away from Washington. Those who live here can still go to their individual Congress Club meetings but for those of us who come just once a year the auxiliary is a great idea."

Amongst those joining in the festivities were the other auxiliary officers. They are: Mrs. Sydney Herlong, vice president; Mrs. Judd, secretary, and Mrs. John Foley, treasurer.

JOHN EHRLICHMAN

I checked out the suggestion that the President might sign Martin Anderson's application for membership in the Bohemian Club.

The President feels since he is not a regular member but an honorary member that he should not sign as the sponsor for Martin. He will be glad to have Marty list him as one of the members who has known him for years, etc. Probably the Club will then ask for a letter and we can send that in -- he just feels because of the honorary status that he is not in a position to be the sponsor for any new members.

He wants you to be sure Martin understands that he would be glad to do this otherwise.

THANKS

Dear Jack:

With the trip to Russia and all the other things going on, I regret that this is the first opportunity I have had to reply to your letter of May fourth regarding the files you have in your Archives. The next time we have someone coming to New York to pick up something we will make arrangements to have them stop by for these files -- and, of course, will let you know in advance.

I was certainly sorry to hear about Mary O'Brien and will get a note off to her as soon as possible.

Do give me a call the next time you are in Washington -- hopefully the schedule will not be too hectic and we will be able to have lunch -- or at least a visit.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Rose Mary Woods

Miss Rose Mary Woods
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Rose Mary:

In checking through the Archives the other day, I discovered two (2) File Drawers which, apparently, still contain some of your records. The attached three (3) Pages seem to be a listing of the contents.

I hope everything is going well with you and the President.

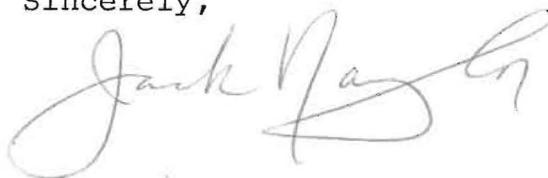

Incidentally, while I was at the Chamber of Commerce the other day, I was informed that Mary O'Brien, the lady who used to handle our luncheons from Schraffts, had just come out of the hospital after having several toes amputated, due to some kind of diabetic and nerve infection. I thought that you might like to drop her a note of encouragement because I know you were quite friendly with her when you were here. For your information her address is:

654 East 233 Street
Bronx, N. Y. 10466

I will give you a call the next time that I am in Washington, and perhaps we can have luncheon.

Best regards from all of us here in New York!

Sincerely,

JN:gdh
