About the photograph: When you will hang this in your E.O.B. office— or somewhere—it will make you happy when you see it.

Dear Daddy,
It's those 364 days in between that get us!

Have a Happy Birthday

Much, much love—

MERRY CHRISTMAS
FROM A COUPLE OF YOUR
JOLLY FRIENDS....
...NO, NOT THEM!
...US!

Helene and Jack

We know you should be "with it" in 1974 and thought this gift would make you a sensation!
For Your Birthday,

BROTHER
Happy Birthday

To wish you lots of happiness
Of course, is nothing new
Because you're always wished the best
That life can bring to you
But on a special day like this
It means a lot to add
That you're as fine a brother
As a person ever had

Our both enjoyed having dinner with you, Fath and Frieda.
Dick, thank you for everything.

Love always,
Don and Clara Jane

To Blessed Mary, Queen of the World

Our Special Birthday Wish for You.
HAPPY BIRTHDAY, MR. PRESIDENT:

Whom God rewards he often puts to test,
    That he may see the mettle of the man who's best,
To serve the purpose of His plan for earth.
    And without fanfare grants him noble birth.

Then as that man develops through the years,
    God gives him burdens and evokes his tears.
The trials which are at our God's behest,
    Are those which make that man one of the blest.

No matter what contrivance others use,
    To try that man and daily him abuse,
His staunchness will survive the trial,
    No fear has he of others use of guile.

Now that you've reached the age of sixty-one,
    God has declared to all, you are His son.
Of His great blessings He will grant you more,
    Now that you've been tried in the past three score.

Here is my prayer that true, and just reward,
    Will come to you from Him, who is our Lord.
That now, He will bring you a perfect peace,
    And from all future trials bring surcease.

May the Lord bless you and keep you.
May the Lord make His face to shine upon you.
May the Lord lift up the light of His countenance upon you and give you peace.

There is a time to be mild. There is a time to be conciliatory. There is a time to fly and a time to fight. And I'm going to fight like hell.

RN.

Dear Mr. President:

There's a time man must be timid,
   To be timid takes much heart.
Though some men may not see it,
   Of great valor tis a part.

Then a time excruciating,
   When brave men must be mild.
When dealing with small intellects,
   Like those of a small child.

Oft, this man in high position,
   Must use calm conciliation.
To smoothe the course of government,
   Of this world's greatest nation.

And then within time's framework,
   There's expediency for flight.
And times, this man of virtue,
   Has to stand steadfast and fight.

The President of our country,
   Is alive, thank God, and well.
And has determination,
   To stand and fight like hell.

John E. Nidecker.

Dear Mr. Kalmbach:

I represent a very substantial business man here in Philadelphia who, for some years has been a collector of various items of historical and cultural interest.

He would be most interested in the event future developments result in the return to President Nixon of the Memorabilia presented to the Smithsonian Institute, to acquire the same.

I am taking the liberty of writing you only because I understand you have handled certain matters of a personal nature for the President. If at some time in the future these records and papers are to be disposed of, I would appreciate it if you would refer this letter to the representative of the President who would be handling the matter for him.

Sincerely yours,

JOSEPH SHARFSIN
