My dear Mr. President:

Your thoughtfulness in having Miss Rose Mary Woods forward your contribution to us is greatly appreciated. In spite of stringent controls, we are still having great difficulty in providing all the services to the Washington area we would like. With support such as yours, we will be able to continue.

Although your gift will be kept confidential, it gives great encouragement to both me and our chapter manager to know that we have your support. This is particularly true as we know the demands that are made on your time.

Many many thanks.

Faithfully yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR: ALEXANDER M. HAIG, JR.
THROUGH: BRUCE KEHRLI
FROM: MICHAEL J. FARRELL
SUBJECT: President's Contribution to
 Combined Federal Campaign

For the file, I received the President's contribution to the Combined Federal Campaign (by check) on December 21, 1973.

I reached Secretary Weinberger in California that day, and he agreed that the best way to handle the President's contribution would be for me to deliver it to him personally upon his return from California on Thursday, December 27, 1973. This would ensure that the contribution would be turned over to the proper officials this week, and would ensure that the contribution would be accomplished through the established confidential procedure.

I personally delivered the check, with the attached letter of transmittal, on Thursday, December 27, 1973.

cc: Rose Mary Woods

December 27, 1973

Dear Mr. Secretary:

Enclosed is the President's contribution to this year's Combined Federal Campaign.

As we discussed, we would appreciate this being handled in the confidential manner you suggested.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Farrell
Special Assistant to the President

The Honorable
Casper W. Weinberger
The Secretary of Health, Education & Welfare

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 20, 1973

MEMORANDUM FOR: ROSE MARY WOODS
FROM:  J. BRUCE WHELIHAN
SUBJECT: President's Charitable Contributions

The President's tax returns for the last four years show a decline in the number and amount of charitable contributions. This has been interpreted by some members of the press as evidence of a lack of sensitivity on the part of the First Family toward the needs of those less fortunate than themselves.

You and I know that this is indeed not the case -- that there has been no conscious desire on the part of the First Family to cut back on their contributions. Rather the decline reflects the transfer of the bookkeeping chores and responsibility for the preparation of tax returns to Arthur Blech's firm from Vincent Andrews. Obviously, no one at Blech's firm thought or was able to review President and Mrs. Nixon's customary charitable gifts with them.

With the end of the 1973 tax year fast approaching it is essential that someone review the President's charitable contributions with him immediately, so that when we release the 1973 returns they properly reflect the First Family's generosity. In order to be reported as charitable gifts in 1973 tax returns, checks or cash must be received by the donee before the first of the year.

There is no question that you are the best one to go over this matter with the President. I have reviewed the contributions made over the past 10 years to assist you. Records of the principal donations the Nixon's repeated -- not including local charitable associations with the Nixon's residence in California and New York -- are appended on cards. I have also attached an all inclusive list of contributions from 1963 to date.

Finally, a table summarizing the President and Mrs. Nixon's contributions over the years is included below with a list of possible contributions for 1973 to get you started.
