Candidate's Statement of Election Expenses

1-193. Campaign Practices — Primary Election — Expenditures of Party Nominating Committee —

A. No contribution of money, or the equivalent thereof, made directly or indirectly to any political party, to any political party committee, to members of any political party committee, or to any person representing or acting on behalf of a political party, and no money in the name of any political party or political party committee shall be expended directly or indirectly in the aid of the nomination at a primary election of any one or more persons as between any one or more other persons of the same political party running in such primary election.

B. Any person who expends money, or is responsible for the expenditure of money, in violation of this section is guilty of a petty misdemeanor.

1-193. Campaign Practices — Primary Election — Itemized Statements —

A. The itemized statement of expenditures filed by each candidate after the primary election shall set forth in detail each item showing the amount and complete record thereof, including all promises to pay money or other things of value, as well as all promises to pay money or other things of value either present or future, which were intended for the purpose of aiding or which could have a tendency to aid my success as such candidate in such election.

B. As used in this section, "itemized statement" means listing a class of like expenditures by each item within that class separately and not as one item. Each item of printing shall be set out separately and each advertisement in a newspaper, on radio, television or billboard shall be specifically set forth with the cost thereof.

Required by the following sections of the Corrupt Practices Act

§ 163-259. Definitions. When used in this Article:

1. The term "campaign committee" includes any committee, association or organization which accepts contributions or makes expenditures for the purpose of influencing or attempting to influence the nomination or election of any candidate at any primary, general or special election.

2. The term "candidate" means an individual whose name is properly placed upon any ballot at any primary, general or special election.

3. The term "contribution" means any gift, payment, subscription, loan, advance, deposit of money, or anything of value whatsoever, and includes a contract, promise or agreement to pay, distribute, give, loan, advance, or deposit any money or anything of value whatsoever for the purpose of influencing or attempting to influence the nomination or election of any candidate at any primary, general or special election, and whether or not said contract, promise, or agreement is legally enforceable.

4. The term "expenditure" means a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit or gift of money or anything of value whatsoever, and includes a contract, promise or agreement to pay, distribute, give, loan, advance, or deposit any money or anything of value whatsoever for the purpose of influencing or attempting to influence the nomination or election of any candidate at any primary, general or special election, and whether or not said contract, promise, or agreement is legally enforceable.

5. The term "person" includes an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation or any other organization or group of persons.

§ 163-260. Detailed Accounts to be Kept by Candidates and Others.

It shall be the duty of every candidate and campaign committee to keep a detailed and exact account of all contributions made to or received by such candidate or campaign committee, and every candidate and campaign committee to keep a detailed and exact account of all expenditures made by such candidate or campaign committee.

1. All contributions made to or for such candidate or committee;

2. The name and address of every person making any such contribution, and the date thereof;

3. All expenditures made by or on behalf of such candidate or committee;

4. The name and address of every person making any such expenditure, and the date thereof;

5. The amount and date of any such contribution or expenditure;

6. The total sum of all contributions made to or for such candidate or committee from each person making such contribution;

7. The total sum of all expenditures made by such candidate or campaign committee;

8. The total sum of all contributions made to or for such candidate or campaign committee by any person and reported to the campaign committee;

9. The total sum of all expenditures made by such candidate or campaign committee.

§ 163-261. Detailed Accounting to Candidates of Persons Receiving Contributions.

Every person who receives a contribution for a candidate or for a campaign committee in any primary, general or special election shall within five days after receipt of such contribution, keep a detailed account thereof, including the name and address of each person making such contribution.

Every person who makes any expenditure in behalf of any candidate or campaign committee in any primary, general or special election shall render to such candidate or campaign committee, within five days after making such expenditure, a detailed account of such expenditure, including the name and address of the person to whom such expenditure was made.

§ 163-263. Statements Under Oath of Primary Expenses of Candidates; Report After Primary.

It shall be the duty of each candidate for any federal, State or district office, or for the State or district office of any county, or for any county office, to file, under oath, with the Secretary of State within 20 days after such primary, with the Secretary of State an itemized statement of all expenditures made by him or which he knows to have been made by or for his campaign committee during the calendar year in behalf of such candidate or his campaign committee, and the amount, date, and purpose of such expenditure;

§ 163-264. Contents of Such Statements. The statement of contributions and expenditures as required by the preceding Sections of this Article shall be verified as follows:

1. The name and address of each person who has made any such contribution or expenditure for such candidate or on behalf of such campaign committee;

2. The total sum of all contributions made to or for such candidate or campaign committee within the calendar year together with the amount and date of such contribution or expenditure;

3. The name and address of each person to whom any such contribution or expenditure was made by or in behalf of such candidate or in behalf of such campaign committee, and the amount, date, and purpose of such contribution or expenditure;

4. The name and address of each person by whom any such contribution or expenditure was made in behalf of such candidate or such campaign committee, and the amount, date, and purpose of such contribution or expenditure;

5. The total sum of all contributions made during the calendar year in behalf of such candidate or his campaign committee;

6. The total sum of all expenditures made during the calendar year in behalf of such candidate or his campaign committee.

§ 163-265. Statements Required of Campaign Committees Covering More Than One County; Verification.

If any campaign committee covering more than one county is making expenditures in more than one county; and if such campaign committee is making expenditures in only one county, a like statement must be verified by the oath or affirmation of the person filing such statement or report, taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths.

§ 163-266. Failure to Report Contributions or Expenditures Made Misdiplinary.

It shall be unlawful for any person to make any contribution or expenditure to aid, in behalf of any candidate or campaign committee, in any primary, general or special election, unless the same be reported immediately to such candidate or campaign committee, to the end that it may be included by him or it in the report required by the preceding Sections of this Article. Any person violating this Section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and in the discretion of the court.

§ 163-267. Secretary of State to Report Failure to File Reports.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, after the time has expired for the filing of such statements and expenditures with the Secretary of State by candidates by in a primary election as is provided in §§ 163-264 to 163-265, to immediately thereafter report to the Attorney General of North Carolina the names and addresses of all candidates for federal, State, or district offices who have failed to file such statements or reports. Upon receipt of said report from the Secretary of State, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of North Carolina the names and addresses of all candidates for federal, State, or district offices who have failed to file such statements or reports. Upon receipt of said report from the Secretary of State, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of North Carolina the names and addresses of all candidates for federal, State, or district offices who have failed to file such statements or reports. Upon receipt of said report from the Secretary of State, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of North Carolina the names and addresses of all candidates for federal, State, or district offices who have failed to file such statements or reports. MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT
FROM: JOHN DEAN
SUBJECT: Candidate Report of Receipts and Expenditures

Forwarded for your approval and signature is a report required to be filed in accordance with the provisions of Article 22, Chapter 163, General Statutes of North Carolina.

The Finance Committee to Re-Elect the President has checked with the four authorized committees in North Carolina and been assured that none of these committees has received any contributions nor made any expenditures on your behalf in connection with the North Carolina primary. The only expenditure made on your behalf was the $1,000 filing fee paid by the Finance Committee for the Re-Election of the President, which went out of existence on April 6.

Please note that this report must be notarized and should be signed on April 26.

Recommendation

That you sign the report attached at Tab A.
