Dear Mr. Bain:

In Mr. Haldeman's absence, I do want to acknowledge your very thoughtful letter to him of October 25th.

As I am sure you know, it is now necessary for him to be away from the office much of the time for meetings and travel.

This is just to say your letter will be brought to his attention, and to assure you he will appreciate so much receiving your comments on the campaign and your good wishes.

We are all looking forward to that victory on November 6th.

The attached check was addressed to the Nixon campaign, but you will note it is payable to Republican Assembly.

Is there some way this can be endorsed over to us? If not, will you please handle this direct with Mr. Irwin S. Schuman, Palm Springs Riviera Hotel (card attached), since he definitely intended it to be a contribution to the Nixon for Governor campaign, as you will note.

Dear Mr. Cahill:

Jim Halley has just forwarded me your check for $250.00 and I certainly want to express our sincere thanks without further delay.

It is understood you would like this contribution earmarked for additional TV or radio coverage, and this will be done.

May I assure you that in these few remaining days of the campaign, this is the most effective use to which these funds can be directed, and we are most appreciative of your recognizing the need and contributing so generously to the cause.

With best regards.

Dear John:

The piece of paper enclosed with your October 24th letter was most gratefully received, badly needed, and I can assure you will be put to fast and effective use these few remaining days of the campaign.

We too were sorry things did not jell, and the leave of absence could not be arranged.

Somehow, despite the hurdles, the hurlers, and the harried, we are living out this last week in high spirits with sure knowledge we're 7 days away from victory.

Many thanks, John, for your substantial help.

In the rush of the last few days, I'm sorry not to have acknowledged your notes -- and more importantly, the enclosures. All have been received. All will be acknowledged appropriately. You know how grateful we are.

That's great about the letters to California friends.

We're going through the same old sixes and sevens. Victory is only days away, however. The odds have been increasing daily in our favor since October 1.

Dear Leonard:

Thank you for your letter of October 31st.

You have done a superb job. It is well recognized, and we have tried to assure you of our appreciation. Your interest and support have been consistent. We count upon it, and are grateful.

We have also explained all Dick Nixon has done with the Nationalities, and although it may appear to you this area has been neglected, this has not been the case, and I believe my previous letter outlined the many events fulfilled.

With the complexities involved in this all-important, hard-hitting campaign, and knowing the sincere effort on the part of everyone in the organization to get maximum coverage for Dick, I am, of course, sorry to learn you feel we have been lacking in cooperation. I can assure you, this was neither our intent nor our desire.

We are most grateful for the substantial contribution you and other members of the Nationalities Committee have made to the campaign.

Dear Mrs. Laurence:

Thank you very much for your letter of October 22nd.

I was most interested in having your comments on the Santa Monica Rally, and certainly understand and agree with your opinion in this case.

We of course have no direct control over Republican meetings, although we do make an effort to keep them on a reasonable time schedule and format when Dick Nixon is participating. I have had other reports similar to yours on the Santa Monica Rally, and while it is unfortunate to have had this sort of thing occur, I can assure you, and am certain you will always find, that the Nixon meetings are always completely controlled and have never been subject to criticism in this regard.

Thank you again for writing.

Dear Len:

One of our secretaries, Miss Joan Carroll, is interested in continuing in campaign work. She has been assigned to our Schedule Office during the Nixon-for-Governor campaign, working directly with John Ehrlichman. Involved has been her contact with the various advancements, preparing the schedule for publication and distribution, heavy telephone work, and a volume of correspondence and filing.

Although Miss Carroll did not work directly for me, I am advised by John Ehrlichman she has done a very satisfactory job, and has been most cooperative, gotten along very well with her co-workers, and has been exceedingly willing to devote her time evenings and weekends if there has been work to be done.

Miss Carroll is interested in relocating and working in New York City. We are happy to recommend her to you, and will appreciate any referral you might find it possible to make.

Best regards.

Dear Don:

We appreciate your letter of October 22nd.

The representatives of the Council on Alcohol Problems did indeed meet with Al Moscow. They transmitted to him their data and their comments on the problem involved. Everything they left was reviewed by Dick Nixon and in his opinion, a meeting was not in order and would have served no useful purpose. He did, however, address a letter to Mr. Birdsall, copy of which is enclosed for your information.

As I recall, they also attempted to apply a little pressure through another Assemblyman. They are persistent, as these people usually are. I do not mean to imply they are not an exceedingly worthwhile group. I am merely pointing out their contact with this organization was at a high level, their issues did reach Dick Nixon, and he did acknowledge their contact by his letter of August 31st.

I am sure you recognize that at this stage of the campaign, Dick's schedule is fully committed and then some, and a meeting between now and November 6 would be impossible.

Trust this will help you get the problem off your desk.

October 22, 1962

Dear Chairman:

It is important that the understandable enthusiasm of our campaign workers in these last two weeks not mislead them into participating in or initiating any unfavorable incidents or heckling of President Kennedy.

While Kennedy's visit here this week is, of course, completely political - in a last-minute effort to try to save the faltering Brown campaign - it would be a mistake on our part to mar it with any untoward occurrence.

The outstanding grass-roots political activity and unprecedented zeal of our thousands of dedicated volunteers should be totally directed to the specific assignments already outlined in order to insure Dick Nixon's 400,000 plus victory on November 6.

Will you please be sure these instructions get to all of your Chairmen and workers immediately?

Keep up your work -- you're doing a great job.

a couple of suggestions he wanted to pass along:

- 1) re: Earl Warren, Jr. --- they thought it might be good idea to get a list of Warren Sr.'s chairmen -- people who worked in his campaign -- contact them -- and get out a release hanging it on them -- supporting and endorsing RN -- to offset Jr.'s gyrations.

- 2) re: Brown taking credit for everything good in California....get out a release -- setting forth record of legislation introduced and passed by the Repubs. -- pointing out the Repub. Adm. was in when etc. etc. etc.

Dear Al:

Thanks very much for your letter of October 17th.

Mr. Fillerup has not called us as yet, but if he does, we will be most appreciative of having the specifics on the Fresno situation.

Meantime, I have sent a copy of your letter to our Fresno County Nixon Chairman, Don Fransen, and have asked him to check into the matter.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

Dear Norman:

Many thanks for sending along the Brown letters.

We are especially glad to have the copy of Mr. Anderson's letter, and want to assure you no use will be made of the contents.

We appreciate your help.

Best regards.

Dear Stan:

Thanks very much for your
October 18th note.

Jackie Robinson's participation has been under consideration for some time. You and your friend will be interested to know we have made arrangements for him to appear on the Los Angeles Telethon November 3rd. This should be most effective.

We appreciate your interest and help.

Things are really rolling, and we're all looking forward to a great victory on November 6th.

Best regards.

Dear Mr. Smythe:

Thank you very much for sending the copy of your October 12 letter directed to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chandler.

The courage you have shown in speaking out as you have is deeply appreciated by all of us, and I hope will do some good.

Please know we are grateful for the action you took in writing your letter and expressing so well what needs to be said.

With kindest regards.

Dear Charlie:

I very much appreciated your letter, and your silent prayers.

Needless to say, I am very much looking forward to returning to J. Walter Thompson in January. I did want you to know that most of the time between November 6 and December 31 will be devoted to cleaning up our records and files, and closing up the campaign organization and getting the necessary projects for the Governor elect under way.

Sorry we didn't get a chance to chat when you were in Los Angeles, but I'm sure I'll be seeing you soon.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

Dear Mrs. O'Donnell:

You may already have received one of the ad proof sheets, but in the event you have not, one is enclosed. You will note the Eisenhower ad. In the thought you might want to use this, I am also enclosing the mat.

If this doesn't serve your purpose, please let me know.

Very best wishes.

Millie Younger called this a.m. -- had your note re:

RN's position on propositions.

= Millie said she got a bit gun-shy at the request for something suitable to put in print.....wonders if just a run-down would serve your purposes here.

= going down the list:

YES on 1-A

4
13
22
23

NO on 24

- and we have statements available on 23 and 24 (attached)

= does this solve the problem?

Dear Mr. Malerstein:

Your letter addressed to Dick Nixon was received and greatly appreciated. He has asked me to acknowledge it only because the campaign schedule is keeping him traveling almost constantly, and he did not want to delay further thanking you for your thoughtfulness in writing him as you did.

Certainly the information you have provided is of real interest to us, and accordingly we are referring it to our Research staff for background and use. It is possible you may hear from them in the event further information is required.

Immediately, however, this is to thank you for your kindness in writing Dick and bringing this situation to our attention. He appreciates, as we all do, the support and help of people like yourself.

With kind regards and good wishes.

Dear Paul:

Thanks very much for your
October 12th note.

In my opinion, the data supplied by one of the Democrats for Nixon in Santa Clara County is extremely well thought out. It's good reading, and his recommendations should be helpful.

We appreciate your passing this along.

Best regards.

Dear Mr. Kinloch:

Your letter of October 3rd has just reached my office and I want to thank you for writing.

We are, of course, very glad to know of your particular interest in the campaign. Under separate cover, I am having sent to you selected speeches of Dick Nixon and also samples of our Nixon-for-Governor material. We are happy to forward this airmail.

to be done

I hope you will realize that with only three weeks remaining in the campaign, and the rigorous schedule being maintained by Mr. Nixon and his staff, we must ask for your understanding in our not replying to the question you have raised regarding free import of Australian grapes and grape by-products. We trust you will recognize the urgency of matters directly related to the California campaign which precludes our replying to your letter more fully at this time.

Our thanks for your interest, and very best wishes.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

Ed Slevin suggests, and I heartily concur, that the ACVL ad be run in the Catholic Monitor in San Francisco. This paper is published every Friday. I would suggest they also consider running it in all other Catholic papers in the state.
