Mr. Robert L. Bliss
Robert L. Bliss & Company
60 East 42nd Street
New York 17, New York

Dear Bob:

First, I want to thank you very much for the copy of the transcript of the American Business Conference on Practical Local Politics. I have been bouncing from one point to another, all over the country and just got back to home base to discover your letter and the copy of the transcript you had sent me, together with a later letter enclosing some comments from people who had written you regarding the transcript.

In all honesty, I must confess that I have not yet had a chance to read the transcript but I am planning to do so very soon. I will be writing you on this subject very shortly but did want you to know that I am now back in town and had received your communications.

You will note the change in address.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

RE: Book autograph

Through John Ehrlichman, we have received a request for an autographed copy of the Mazo book to be mailed to a banker in Tokyo who Mr. Nixon met down at White Sulphur Springs. His name is Tokuji Hasegawa of the Mitsubishi Bank, Limited in Tokyo. He had met the Vice President and is a great admirer of his.

Would you please have Mr. Nixon autograph this, to Mr. Hasegawa from himself, and return it to us, for forwarding on to Mr. Hasegawa.

Thanks.

Ehrlichman

PERSONAL

Dear John:

Thank you very much for your letter indicating Hans' interest in working with the Nixon Volunteers, either in New York or in Connecticut.

I have sent this information on to Pete Flanigan and I am sure Hans will be hearing directly from one of Pete's group up New York way.

I will arrange to get a Maso book autographed for Mr. Hasegawa and will send it on to Hans under separate cover within the next few days.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

RE: Hans Schuyten

John Ehrlichman, who, as you know, is one of the key Advance Men for the coming campaign, has a cousin-in-law who lives in Greenwich, Connecticut. He is an assistant Vice President of American Express and is most anxious to help in whatever way he can with a Volunteer club operation either in New York or Connecticut. He works with American Express at 65 Broadway in New York.

Hans has never been active in politics in any particular way and consequently should be qualified as a legitimate volunteer. I would suggest we have the proper source get in touch with him, either for New York or for Connecticut participation.

Incidentally, Hans believes he knows, or at least has met your father. The correct name is E. Johannes Schuyten, Assistant Vice President, The American Express Company, Inc., 65 Broadway, New York 6, New York.

Mr. Otis Chandler, Publisher
Los Angeles Times
Times Building
Los Angeles, California

Dear Otis:

Having just gotten back to the office after several junkets around the country, I am just now getting the opportunity to drop you a note to offer my belated congratulations and very best wishes upon your appointment as publisher of the Times.

Needless to say, it is very gratifying to me, as a fellow member of the younger generation of Angelenos to see one of our group assume a position of such tremendous importance and responsibility as that which you now have.

I had a note from Dad and he said that the luncheon was very exciting and that everyone present was greatly impressed by your remarks and your sincerity.

I am sure the Times is in good hands under your leadership and that you will carry on the outstanding tradition established by your great grandfather, your grandfather and your father.

Please accept my heartiest congratulations and very best wishes for what I am sure will be the extremely productive years that lie ahead of you.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

Dear Jack:

I will be glad to take care of the picture for Mrs. McCormick per your request.

Unfortunately, I have not retained a copy of the list of people you provided me and I am unable to remember Mrs. McCormick's particular identity. I wonder if you would drop me a quick note filling me in on her background so I can be sure this request is handled properly.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
