AIR MAIL

Dear Dick:

Thank you very much for your very kind wire. As you perfectly well know, the credit goes to the group who were out in Indiana doing the work...not to me.

Also, thanks a million for the print of the Winter Olympic film. Please let me know how much I owe you for same.

I am looking forward to seeing the financial pages.

Travel plans are still pretty limited as you probably have read. As the pace steps up, we will be getting in touch with you, though, because I hope there will be an opportunity for you to make another trip before the Convention.

Best regards.

Will you please send out immediately by Airmail, Special Delivery, a 24" x 36" black and white photograph of the Vice President to be used at the Taber Testimonial Dinner in Auburn, New York.

This should be sent to: Mr. Robert White
Taber & White
Auburn, New York

Also, will you have sent to Mr. White, a glassy reproduction of the Vice President's seal that they can use as artwork for the dinner program. If we don't have a print of this, we should get one, from Don Hughes, I guess.

These should go out as quickly as possible, since the dinner is only a little over a week away. They want a black and white picture of RN in the 24" x 36" size to match a picture of Taber which they are using for the dinner.

New York 28, New York

Dear Mr. Wershub:

Thank you very much for your letter of April 26 in which you indicate your belief in the leadership ability of Mr. Nixon and your desire to take an active interest in the Presidential campaign this summer and fall.

Since I am not sure from your letter what the nature of your intended participation might be, I am assuming that your interest would be in working in the New York area.

On this assumption, I am therefore, by carbon of this letter, informing Mr. George Vetter, Chairman of the New Yorkers for Nixon, of your interest. I am sure you will be hearing directly from Mr. Vetter who should find your advertising experience and your interest in Mr. Nixon of great value to him in his work.

New Yorkers for Nixon, as you might know, was formed last year as a volunteer group actively dedicated to the Nixon cause. I think you will find their work to be very worthwhile and stimulating and trust that you will be able to participate with them in their endeavors.

Thank you very much for your thoughtfulness in writing, and keep up the good work.

Best regards.-

RE: Police escorts for motorcades

There have been some questions about the methods and principles involved in requesting police escorts for the Vice President's motorcades.

The important thing in this connection is to keep in mind the purpose of an escort when one is used. This is, of course, to insure that the entire motorcade, of whatever number of cars it consists, start, continue and arrive at the destination together. In discussing escort plans with the Secret Service field offices or with the police, it should be emphasized that the function of the escort is not to provide a body guard for the Vice President or a Guard of Honor for the Vice President.

Keeping these points in mind, it becomes obvious that the number of motorcycles or vehicles required to escort the motorcade will depend on the length of the motorcade and number of cars in same. It will not require a large number of motorcycles at the front of the motorcade or surrounding the Vice President's cars. There should, in most cases, be a lead car out in front...usually a marked police car. There should also be a follow-up car after the last official car in the motorcade, and this too, should probably in most cases, be a marked police car. These two vehicles should be able to maintain radio contact with each other so the motorcade can be held intact.

If motorcycles are needed in addition to the lead and follow-up cars, they should operate on a push basis rather than leap-frogging. In other words, the first motorcycle arrives at an intersection just as the motorcade does and holds the traffic at the intersection while the motorcade proceeds through. The second motorcycle will be running about even with the third or fourth car in the motorcade and as it comes in to the intersection, the first motorcycle does on ahead to the next intersection. The second one stays there until the next motorcycle arrives about even with the sixth or seventh car and then goes on ahead, and so on. Thus there is no great confusion of motorcycles rearing back and forth nor is there any need for extensive use of sirens or other sound devices.

The most important thing, however, is to emphasize that the real problem is getting the last car in the motorcade to the destination along with the rest of the cars. ~~Extra~~ Emphasis should not be placed on the Vice President's car solely. Most of the troubles we have had with escorts in the past, have been due to a lack of understanding of this basic principle.

Thank you very much for sending on the two handkerchiefs. I didn't realize you were a seamstress, but you did a lovely job on the elephants.

As you can tell from the papers, we are still not doing a great deal of traveling, and plans for future trips are, of course, very limited at this point. I think that the Primary results so far have been very gratifying... especially Indiana, and it looks as though things are moving along very well.

Thank you very much again for sending the handkerchiefs, and best regards.

In the past, as you know, when we are in Chicago we have used Ed Power, a former S.S. agent, to handle arrangements for motorcades, etc. The local committee has paid for his services, in most cases. In connection with the most recent trip, we are paying him.

He has an arrangement with the Hertz Corporation in Chicago whereby they provide the cars for our motorcade, and as you know, Ed lines up drivers from the University of Chicago.

I had always thought he rented the cars from Hertz and since the whole thing has always been handled by the local Committee, I had no reason to believe otherwise. I now discover that Hertz apparently donates the cars and does not charge us for them. I think, therefore, that we should probably get a letter of thanks off to the Hertz Corporation and I understand the proper contact would be Walter L. Jacobs, President, The Hertz Corporation, 218 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago 4, Illinois. I guess he has supplied the cars for all of the trips where we have used Ed Powers' services since the '58 campaign.

You may feel it's better not to write at this point, since we haven't on earlier trips, but perhaps we could do it on the basis of saying that Ed Power, who has handled our transportation arrangements in Chicago, has informed me of your cooperation in providing cars...or something like that.

Whatever you think is best, will be fine.

Dear Mr. Heinze:

Thank you very much for your letter regarding the article in Advertising Age.

I am sure that your work in the field of public information could be of tremendous value to us in the forthcoming campaign.

I am taking the liberty of sending your letter to Mr. Peter Flanigan, National Director of Nixon Volunteers. I think that his organization is the one with which you would be best affiliated since they are devoted to the establishment of Nixon for President Clubs in communities throughout the country. Your availability to travel on evenings and week-ends through the general areas of Southern Ohio and Northern Kentucky would, I think, make you of tremendous value to this organization.

I am sure Pete Flanigan will want to send your name on to his Area Representative in your part of the country and I assume you will hear directly from him in the near future.

I am very sorry you had no response to your letter to the Nixon Club at the Shoreham Building. The reason probably was that at the time you wrote, they were not actively looking for volunteer workers in other parts of the country, and apparently your offer of services was one which they could not take advantage of right at the time. You should, of course, have received a reply, and again, I am very sorry you did not.

I had a telephone call yesterday from Sam Krupnick and among other things he reported that the Susskind telecast had created all kinds of favorable reaction in St. Louis in spite of the fact that the show hasn't even run out there. Apparently a number of people have heard about it from their friends or contacts in New York or Washington and have been very much impressed.

Sam himself had a phone call from a friend of his in New York who is the strongest anti-Nixon man he knows, according to Sam, who said he had called Krupnick just to apologize for some of the nasty comments he had made about Nixon. Sam says this guy is a very knowledgeable and savvy person and he, Krupnick was quite impressed with the fact that this guy had reacted so favorably to the telecast.

Sam's other point was that he felt it was very important that some work be done on the Bela Kornitzer book which he thinks supplies the missing link in the material available on Nixon. He feels it should be syndicated and an all-out effort should be made to build sales and distribution of the book. This might be a project you want to turn over to Krupnick since I'm not sure what, in general, is being done on it at this point. He seems to have a great interest in getting something done.

Also, as you obviously know, he is vitally concerned with the St. Louis trip and is having a meeting this afternoon for example, to start working on publicity for the Jewish Community Center part of the visit. I think we should get our plans for St. Louis laid out as soon as we can...at least in general so that we don't hold Krupnick up any longer than is necessary. I think that any delay will be a problem as far as Sam is concerned.

As I wrote you earlier, Noble Travis, the Public Relations Director of Michigan Consolidated Gas, is coming to Washington again on June 6 and 7. You will recall he was here a while back and had requested an audience with the Vice President at that time or on this trip.

My recommendation is still that he not see the Vice President. I would suggest that it would be a good idea for either McWhorter or McCaffrey to give him some time, however.

I will ask Travis to write you requesting time with the Vice President and you can send him the standard form referring him to McWhorter or McCaffrey, if you will, please.

I have mentioned this to McWhorter and to McCaffrey so whichever of them ends up with him has a brief background on the situation but Charlie suggested it would be a good idea to have something in writing on the request.

Dear Doug:

Thank you very much for your recent letter. You are right in assuming that my lack of correspondence has been due to the fact that I've been out running around the country.

I'm afraid I can't give you much constructive hope as far as plans for the Convention are concerned. It looks at this point as though we will be taking a very small staff to the Convention and it will be limited to those of our permanent staff who can perform an actual function during the Convention.

I am not sure at this point whether there is going to be anything that you could do here in Washington or in any of our other Headquarters during the summer period. The problem, as you recognize, is the one of trying to bring you in for just a short period of time during the summer and having you return to school just as the campaign really gets underway.

I would suggest, however, that you continue to keep in touch from time to time, and I assure you that if, as and when anything comes up I will let you know.

RE: New York Trip - Names

I'm not sure how many of the following names Don may have already given you or which might have been covered on lists which have come in directly from the cities concerned but I'll cover them here just in case:

- 1) Kevin Cox
Republican Party County Headquarters
Ellicott Square Building, Buffalo, New York

He is Executive Secretary of the County Committee and handled all the details on the over-all arrangements for Buffalo, including the preparing of the list of names which is supposed to be coming directly to you. I assume the name list will include Senator Cooke who is the County Chairman and was in over-all charge.

- 2) Edward P. Mattar
P. O. Box 186, Niagara Square Station
Buffalo, 2, New York

He should be thanked for his part in organizing the College group from the University of Buffalo who came out to greet the Vice President at the Airport. The letter should say that the Vice President was sorry his schedule did not permit him to visit the campus while he was there which Mattar had requested that he do.

- 3) Richard Sullivan
401 Plymouth Drive,
Syracuse, New York

He should be thanked for organizing the group at Syracuse University who came out to greet the Vice President at the Airport.

- 4) William Petty, Mgr.
Auburn Inn,
Auburn, New York

He should be thanked for the courtesy of the use of his Hotel facilities. I assume the name Everett Dungey will be on Bob White's list of names which he is sending you as well as White's name too in connection with the Taber Dinner.

I assume that Hughes gave you the name of Alexander Jones who was the one who put together the breakfast in Syracuse. The host at the breakfast was Stephen Rogers who is the publisher of the Syracuse Herald-Journal.

The manager of the Statler Hotel in Buffalo is Mr. Thurston and the manager of the Hotel Syracuse is Mr. Wilder, in case you don't already have those names.

The letter for the A.M.E. Zion thing should go to Bishop Walls. I have no address on him nor no file on him, but I think that Hughes does, if you don't already have it.

Several of Pete Flanigan's Nixon Volunteer guys worked on getting groups out to the Airport. I think it would probably be a good idea to send letters to them. As a matter of fact, Ray Blair at Syracuse was included in the list that the Party people are sending you. The fellow in Buffalo is Dick Michaels and he actually is in over-all charge of both Syracuse and Buffalo for this Volunteer operation and Blair worked under him in Syracuse.

Dick Michaels' address is 266 Pearl Street, Buffalo, New York. His full name is Richard W. Michaels.
