CALIFORNIANS FOR GOLDWATER - WESTSIDE CHAPTER

3222 Santa Monica Blvd.

Santa Monica, California

Granite 9-0095

September, 1962

THE FIRST YEAR

As of this month, the Westside Chapter, Californians for Goldwater, is one year old. For the benefit of our members who have only recently become active, as well as for the many readers who have not yet joined the chapter, we believe that this would be a good time to recap the prominent events of this first busy year.

The most striking development, and a most encouraging one, has been our membership growth. Ours was one of the first chapters of CFG to be organized, and from its initial membership of 30 has grown to approximately 120 members. The statistics understate the real case, since many of our members broke off from the Westside chapter to help form two new ones, in Brentwood and in Pacific Palisades. In addition, of course, some 20 other chapters have organized elsewhere in the state, joining us in the CFG Congress.

For most members, CFG activities have centered in the regular meetings held the third Monday of each month; these have generally featured speakers of considerable political interest. A number of candidates for office have addressed the group—the most prominent being gubernatorial candidate Joseph C. Shell, who spoke to a capacity audience at the Westside meeting in December, even while most of the state was regarding him as a minor, "unknown" candidate. Other important addresses included those of Howard Jarvis, then a candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination and now an independent write-in candidate; Dr. Daniel Belts, Republican congressional nominee in the 26th district; and all candidates for the Republican 60th assembly district nomination—Jack Hagler, Gil Nelson, Ev Ross, and Bob Stevens. Other programs were of more general interest: a presentation by the National Management Association; speeches by columnist George Todt and by George Ghanem, former British vice-consul in the Congo; and many others.

Under the general heading of "political action," the group endorsed the candidacies of Shell, Jarvis, and Belts (all mentioned above) and of Dr. Max Rafferty, now a runoff candidate for superintendent of public instruction. During the Shell primary campaign, we were extremely active in precinct work, covering some 99 precincts in the Westside area. A very successful motorcade advertised throughout the area for Shell, and our chapter co-sponsored Shell's address before a capacity crowd at Pacific Palisades High School.

A single major money-raising event was held, that being a speech by William F. Buckley of National Review in January. Happily, the event was a great success. Approximately 1500 persons attended, and a few even had to be turned away at the door. The proceeds from the Buckley

SEPTEMBER MEETING

Date: Monday, September 17
Time: 8 p.m.
Place: West Los Angeles YMCA
10885 Santa Monica Blvd.

NEW MEMBERS

The following new members were accepted at the Executive Board meeting on September 6:

Mr. William S. Brown
Mrs. Richard Groves
Miss Jacqueline Knight
Dr. Peter Stone.

We are glad to welcome these members, and hope to see them frequently as active members of Californians for Goldwater.

RICHARDSON CAMPAIGN

Miss Renee Wilson, who did a truly wonderful job of precinct work for us in the Shell campaign, is now in Alhambra as a part of the team working to elect Bill Richardson to congress. Mr. Richardson, an excellent conservative, is opposed by far-left George Brown, Jr. Contributions to the campaign, in either time or money, would be most welcome. Make checks payable to Richardson for Congress, 420 S. Main, Alhambra; or contact Renee at Atlantic 4-6604.

speech have financed many of our later activities.

Financial and moral support has been given to many other conservative groups and individuals, here and elsewhere in the country. Contributions included $150 to the Shell campaign, $50 to the almost-successful campaign of conservative John Goode in Texas, and $100 for operation of UCLA's new conservative campus newspaper, the Gargoyle. Last August, the Westside chapter chartered a bus to help fill the El Camino college auditorium for a speech by Senator Goldwater. Working with the Committee against the King Anderson Bill, we helped successfully picket a downtown rally at which the administration pushed its Medicare proposal.

Since April, the chapter office has been maintained (though still inadequately staffed). Recently it was equipped with a mimeograph machine, used primarily to effect preparation of our newsletter for some 800 conservatives.

It has been a busy year, and we anticipate two even busier ones before the election of President Goldwater in 1964. For those who are not members—we urge you to join us. For members—we urge your continued, increasingly active participation. We're sure you'll enjoy it; and we look forward to working with even more of you toward a sound, conservative government for America.

DOUGLAS AND THE UNION

Conservatives throughout the Westside deplore the result of recent negotiations between one of our leading industries, the Douglas Aircraft Company, and the International Association of Machinists. Douglas and the IAM agreed to an "agency shop" provision, which has the effect of forcing (as a condition of employment) all employees in classes represented by the union to pay union dues--whether or not they are members of the union. This callous disregard for individual freedom of choice represents one more step in one of the most tragic trends of our times, the destruction of individual identity and the replacement of the individual by a number or symbol representing his spot in the governmental, corporate, or labor organization. Employees are not yet bound by "union shop" requirements; that is, they need not actually join the union and submit to its regulations. But with involuntary dues pouring thousands of dollars per month in to build up the union's strength, one wonders if the union shop is far behind.

Many employees, effectively disenfranchised by collective bargaining regulations, have opposed the agency shop with all available weapons. Petitions with 250 signatures have been sent to congressmen. With the aid of the National Right-To-Work Committee, some employees are challenging the constitutionality of the agency shop in court and before the National Labor Relations Board. The NLRB has previously ruled for the agency shop, but some court decisions have cast doubt upon it.

It is an individual's natural right to decide for himself where he wishes to work, what conditions of employment he will accept, and what bargaining agency he chooses to support, if any. It is evident that this right can be maintained ultimately only through right-to-work legislation that will guarantee the individual his freedom of choice. Passage of such legislation and the election of legislators who favor it should be continuing goals of all conservatives. The settlement at Douglas only makes the need all the more evident.

FELTZ ENDORSEMENT

At its August meeting, the Westside CFC chapter formally endorsed the candidacy of Dr. Daniel Feltz for congress, 26th district. We strongly urge all our members to take part in precinct work for Dr. Feltz's campaign.

Members who can do precinct work in the Venice area are again requested to call Mr. Jack Wilson, EX 7-1847.

RAFFERTY SPEECH

A last-minute reminder: Dr. Max Rafferty, candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will speak to the Santa Monica Republican Women's Club. Time: 11 a.m., September 11 (Tuesday). Place: Nautilus Room, Miramar Hotel.

A CONSERVATIVE CHOICE?

Ever since the June primary, many conservatives have been puzzled as to which way to turn in the California gubernatorial election. While they could hardly bring themselves to vote for Pat Brown, at the same time they hesitate to cast votes that will increase the strength of Richard Nixon as head of the Republican Party.

Faced with this dilemma, a surprising number of conservatives are looking with interest at the third party on the ticket: the Prohibition party. They have been welcomed and encouraged by that party's very conservative candidate, Dr. Robert L. Wyckoff, who has said that he "can't see how anyone who voted for Joe Shell can in good conscience support anyone but me in November." Lest this seem too surprising, consider some of the planks in the Prohibitionist platform: for passage of the Lou Francis anti-communist amendment; for passage of a state right-to-work law; and for elimination of the graduated income tax. Actually, prohibition clauses have become such a minor part of the party platform that plans are underway for changing the party's name to the American party, thus removing a name which is anathema to many. The current platform calls only for local option on prohibition, not for a state law. According to Dr. Wyckoff, "The party is not for prohibition as the word is commonly understood."

Trying to counter any tendency to regard him as a minor candidate, Dr. Wyckoff has recently sent this telegram to Governor Brown: "If Mr. Nixon refuses to debate with you, I am always willing. Your programs are so similar that I am prepared for either or both of you."

In the absence of a conservative candidate for either major party, there may be a sizable protest vote for Dr. Wyckoff. We advise our readers to watch his campaign closely.

CONGRESSIONAL ISSUES

Two major legislative items are still pending in these last days of the current congressional session. Before the Senate is H.R. 11970, the trade expansion act, which would give the president discretionary control over tariffs. Under a different national climate of opinion, it is difficult to believe that this law would be considered constitutional, in view of Article I's specific dictum that "The Congress shall have power to lay and collect...duties...."

Meanwhile, the House is preparing to vote on a measure authorizing the purchase of $100 million in U.N. bonds. In essence, this grants U.S. money to the U.N. for the indirect purpose of financing the U.N.'s brutal and unwarranted interference in the internal politics of the Congo--a major item of its expenditures today.

If time remains when this newsletter is received, we urge you to write Senators Kuchel and Engle, and Representative Bell, to oppose the passage of both these measures. With elections two months away, you can be sure that letters will be read with unusual attention.

MEETING 2/26/62 - Pac. Palisades Chapter of Californians
For Goldwater.

Distribution:

Herewith is report on above meeting, per your request.

Meeting February 26, 1962, Pacific Palisades Chapter of CALIFORNIANS FOR GOLDWATER. 821 Via De La Paz, Pacific Palisades. 8 p.m.

Meeting opened by Jack Carpenter who introduced people sitting on platform.

Robert Gaston, President LA Co. YR.
George Tutt
Mr. Ide - Coordinator Calif. YR
Bob Crushon
Ken Johnson
Tom Sullivan
Craig Belt

Carpenter's remarks opened the meeting as follows:

Our principal aim is to elect Conservatives.

If there are 10 encumbants, and they are Conservatives, vote for them and leave alone those you don't know.

Gaston's Remarks;

If you don't denounce all left wingers it is bad.

What is a Conservative? Basic answer to this is, a Conservative believes basically in the individual.

Man has a God-given heritage. Liberals don't care about the individual. They are destroying man and his basic dignity.

(here Gaston quoted from the Wall Street Journal article "Political Opportunity")

If something is offered in two packages at the store, and one product is an old established brand name product and the other is a new product, people will buy the known brand name product. Therefore we must offer something good enough that they will buy. We must offer something different.

We are often called the "radical right" by the newspapers. We believe that the least government is the best government. The best government is designed to protect people from the government.

I have been asked if I would support the winning Republican candidate in the primaries, regardless of who he is. Since one of the candidates has said he doesn't want the support of the Central Committee, how could I support him if he were successful in the Primary? He does not want my support.

I can't understand why one of the Republican candidates is making enemies of his friends. Well, his friends aren't going to vote for him anyway.

We are being called witch hunters.

(here he told about being on Ben Hunter's TV show for 2 hours)

We talk about what we believe in, in public. The liberals say people are dumb. They say....don't give people an ideal.

Every time we get our names in the newspapers, somebody blackmails us. Usually it is the Democrats.

Liberals and Modernists control all the advertising media for the most part.

The working press is 90% controlled by Democrats and Liberals.

The Liberals say we have simple answers for complex problems. The reverse is actually true.

The Liberals however can never give you a simple answer to ANY question.

I wrote some 2 months ago about some of our weaknesses. But the newspapers picked it up and quoted me out of context.

People try to belittle Goldwater.

We must laugh at these things.

I am not supposed to endorse anybody. I guess I'd better take off this Shell button then.

If we lose this time, we must work harder and harder. We must for the next five years, very hard.

When people asked me how I won the L.A. County YR, I tell them, work, work, work. That is the reason we have been successful. Lots of volunteer time. Putting in long hours working. They can't understand this. I never once had to tell my people at the Disneyland convention how to vote. All the others offered jobs and other sorts of other things to get the vote. We almost took control of the whole state. We would have if we had had a little more time. It was because we believed in something. I firmly believe Goldwater can beat Kennedy.

Shell will beat Brown a hell of a lot easier than Nixon will.

Well, I go off on all sorts of tangents, don't I.

They are trying to call themselves Moderates.

The Communists believe in what they are doing but they are dead wrong.

I believe in flag waving. The mass of voters have no faith in our governmental system any more. The government has gone by default.

By any standards, we are not extremeists.

Alger Hiss was just a way of life.

Our government does not believe what the Communists say. It does not believe they mean what they say.

This year the Board members of the YR's is running the organization. I am not running the RY's. Last year, the president ran the YR's. Last year it was a one-man show.

— (Shell will not win on the publicity he gets. He must win by word-of-mouth publicity.

He doesn't have control of the press.

→ (The thing that will save us is big business. Some of the big business people are swinging over to our side. Coast Federal has done this and (he mentioned 2 other business houses).

We have not sold our way of life abroad. We have got to work for the Conservative movement.

Don't be taken in by newspaper articles and statements that pick statements of our candidates out of context and print them.

We now, as conservatives, control the official arm of the Republican Party. This is why we are getting the national publicity. We have taken control of 20% of the official volunteer organizations of the Party.

We hope next year to take the whole thing.

If we can get Joe Shell in this time, it will be tremendous.

However there are also factions within the Conservatives.

We must get behind and support our organization. Our best support is Precinct work.

Last election (presidential) was lost by less than 1% per precinct.

Take 6 people in a precinct. 3 of each, Republican and Democrats. All you need to win are 50% of your representation because only 50% of the registered voters vote in a Primary.

We need only 8 people in any given precinct. This can swing the Primary. Getting out and doing door-to-door campaigning.

The Democrats did it this way. Block-to-block, door-to-door campaigning. Block-by-block precinct organization.

The Republicans do not yet realize they must have a good precinct organization.

You can't write off anyone.

We must start door-to-door work. We must give the people an ideal. You are going to have to drop out of other groups and organizations and devote all your time to precinct work.

When people ask "what are you going to do for me" I say, Nothing. I am going to give you a chance to do things for yourself.

The Liberals are trying to bribe people like the Democrats do.

But it is precinct work that will do the job.

Floor Questions:

Q. Are you available to speak at other meetings - to other groups?

A. Yes.

Q. Would you be willing to debate a Democrat on TV?

A. Yes.

Q. Please explain your comment about the press being controlled by the left (question by Managing Editor of Santa Monica Evening Outlook)

A. Yes. That is what I said. 90% of the working press is controlled by the Democrats and Liberals.

Q. You mean by that that the editors do not control what their papers print?

A. Yes. 9 out of 10 people of the working press are registered democrats and liberals.

But we are going to go before TV and make news. We don't care if the Republicans like it or not.

Q. Why are you taking a strong stand for Shell when you are supposed to be non-partisian before the Primary?

A. Because Nixon has refused to support two encumbant Republican congressmen, one of whom is 72 years old.

Now, we want to get our Malibu chapter started tonight. Please see Carl Witt, precinct organizer who is an insurance broker in private life.

Dues shall be payable by Regular Members and by Junior Members within ten days of admittance to membership in the Chapter by vote of the Board of Directors and shall cover a period of one year, commencing with admittance to membership. Non-payment of dues shall be considered to be valid grounds for expulsion from membership in the Chapter.

Section 2. NOMINATION AND ELECTION. No less frequently than once every fourteen months the President shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of himself as Chairman and two other Regular Members in good standing. This committee shall prepare a list of at least six nominees who are qualified and willing to serve on the Board of Directors. The President shall convene a membership meeting within thirty days of the appointment of the nominating committee, and the official notification of said meeting shall state that election of the Board of Directors will take place at the meeting. At this meeting, the President shall make the nominations recommended by the Nominating Committee and shall entertain further nominations by any Regular Members in good standing. Open balloting shall be employed, and a simple majority shall be sufficient to elect.

Section 3. POWERS AND DUTIES. Subject to any limitations contained in these By-Laws, the Board of Directors shall have full power and authority to conduct, manage, and control the affairs, activities, and business of the Chapter in such a manner as it may deem best. In addition, special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called on request of a majority of existing members of the Board of Directors.

Section 5. QUORUM. The presence in person or by written proxy of a majority of the existing members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and, except where otherwise specifically provided in these By-Laws, a majority of the members so represented shall be sufficient to decide all questions at any such meeting.

Section 6. REMOVALS FROM OFFICE. Any member of the Board of Directors may be removed from office, without stated cause, by a 2/3 vote of the members of the Board of Directors, as provided for in ARTICLE VI, Section 8, or by a 2/3 vote of the Regular Members in good standing present at a special meeting of members called specifically for the purpose of considering the removal from office of one or more members of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII - COMMITTEES

Section 1. APPOINTMENT. The President, with the consent of the Board of Directors, shall appoint chairmen of standing committees. The President may appoint chairmen of the committees without the advance consent of the Board of Directors.
