Elect Democratic Team

Non-partisan observers describe the dynamic achievements of the Brown administration as the most progressive since Governor Hiram Johnson a half century ago. A native son, the Governor has spent his entire political life improving the living, working and recreational opportunities for all Californians. As a District Attorney and Attorney General before his election as Governor by a plurality of more than one million votes, Pat Brown knows California and the great challenges facing this soon-to-be the largest state. It is vital that every citizen be aware of his record of accomplishment and his bold plans for the future."

brings to his high office 25 years of experience as a public official, from Mayor of his birthplace, Hawthorne, through four terms in the state legislature. He has given special attention to the field of higher education as a member of the Board of Regents of the University of California and the Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges. As chairman of the important State Lands Commission, Glenn Anderson's diligent work has brought millions of dollars of additional revenue to our state, and as President of the state senate, he has been a leading force in obtaining legislative approval of Governor Brown's Program.

is an experienced business executive and public servant. He has served as Executive Secretary to California's Lieutenant Governor, is a member of the Governor's Advisory Committee on Voting Procedures, and has served for 8 years as Chairman of the Los Angeles County Democratic Central Committee.

He pledges to bring to this office (the lone constitutional office now held by a Republican) the forward-looking efficient programs which characterize the Brown administration, instituting time and labor saving procedures in balloting and vote-counting Reduced Controllers basic budget despite workload increases. Simplified tax forms, and blocked a sudden threatened multi-million dollar tax shift from private utilities to home owners. Helped increase income to State through prudent investment of surplus State money—which Republican predecessors left idle in checking accounts in favored banks. Helped decrease interest costs on bonds sold for schools, veterans, recreation. Vigorously enforced Fair Employment Practice in state government.

The youngest of the Constitutional Officers, Betts returned competition to California bond sales resulting in $16.8 million dollar saving to California taxpayers. Betts' dynamic investment program now yields $37 million dollars annually, twice as much as the previous administration. Betts' training as a Certified Public Accountant has provided California with a trained financial leader, who has brought fiscal responsibility to California.

Dynamically applies his outstanding ability and experience as a judge and attorney. Ordered special investigations into consumer fraud and successfully prosecuted the guilty. Initiated the greatest number of anti-trust prosecutions in California's history, five times more than in the last fifty years. Established a new section in his office to protect constitutional rights of individuals. Fought for tougher narcotics laws within a human and constitutional framework, and stricter enforcement against peddlers. Sternly defended California's water rights

Serves the huge Fourth District, singlehandedly representing approximately nine and one-half million Southern California citizens. Insurance executive for over a decade and a recognized expert in assessment practices. Administers the collection of over a million and a half dollars annually, at a cost of only 1½¢ for each $1.00 collected. Efficient methods of administration have allowed an actual decrease in Board of Equalization staff as work-loads have increased during term of office. Spurred fair employment practices.

Uniquely qualified to serve the people of California and to serve President Kennedy in the United States Senate. Eight years of experience as the only state Senator for Los Angeles County, currently represents over six million people. Since 1954, he has written, co-written, or personally carried on the state Senate floor more than one out of every five bills which have been enacted into law for the people of California. Will give to Californians the dynamic representation in Washington that he has given them state-wide.

with eight years of solid legislative background, is eminently qualified to be the State Senator from Los Angeles County. A leader, Rees is Chairman of the important Finance and Insurance Committee of the Assembly. He has been responsible for key legislation for consumer protection and for worker security. Rees has fought consistently and successfully for the betterment of the entire state and of Los Angeles County—for better smog control, for firm guarantees to our area through the California Water Plan and for a better break on the gas tax fund for our critical highway needs. Will give proven leadership and experience to our Californians

BERT BETTS, at 38 combines the vigor of youth with a proven record of performance in the important job to which he seeks re-election.

MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

BETTS' FINANCIAL TRAINING BENEFITS CALIFORNIA

BETTS' training as a CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT provided him the experience to break the rigid and short-sighted programs imposed by the previous administrations and to place California Taxpayers in a flexible and favorable position to sell bonds on a receptive national market at a great savings.

COMPETITIVE BOND SALES — SAVES TAXPAYERS MILLIONS

BETTS, by saving the taxpayers $16.8 MILLION DOLLARS in the four bond sales, from August, 1961 to January, 1962, has proven his fight to restore competitive bidding in the sale of California bonds is the program necessary to finance California's growth soundly and protect its citizens from unnecessary tax costs. This competition WILL SAVE the TAXPAYER $100's of MILLION$ in the years to come.

DYNAMIC INVESTMENT PROGRAM EARNS TAXPAYERS MILLIONS

BETTS expanded our state's investment program until it now produces 37 million dollars annually, enough money to build 62 complete elementary schools per year, and twice as much as the previous administration. These are dollars from NON-TAX SOURCES that are put to work to benefit you and your family.

IMPROVED BOND REDEMPTION PLAN SAVES STATE MONEY

BETTS revised California's contracts with fiscal agents across the nation in order to speed-up the redemption of California Bond Coupons. This new process is saving California $50,000 dollars annually.

SAVINGS MADE ON EXPANSION OF STATE VAULT

BETTS' purchase of new equipment for the expanded vault was made at a savings of $85,000 dollars while increasing storage efficiency.

EXPANSION OF OPERATIONS WITHOUT INCREASING COSTS

BETTS has modernized procedures within the TREASURER'S OFFICE, increasing efficiency while taking on an increased work load without hiring additional personnel. Thus making still another saving for the CALIFORNIA TAXPAYER.

The Treasurer's Office endeavors to save and invest wisely the money of the people of the State of California.

Bert A. Betts

TREASURER OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The Treasurer is the banker for the State of California and the management of money --- taxpayers' money --- is his prime obligation.

HOW YOUR SENATORS VOTED—United States Senate 1961-1962

Roll Call Votes taken directly from the Congressional Record, official publication of the United States Congress. Votes are judged on basis of official AFL-CIO position:

R means Voted Right or Paired Right — means Absent or General Pair
* means before taking office

1. CURBING FILIBUSTERS, S. Res. 4, Jan. 11, 1961 Liberal proposals and human rights legislation are often talked to death by vote-preventing filibusters. Resolution would have permitted three-fifths of Senators present and voting to shut off filibuster, bring human rights measures to vote. Motion to return resolution to committee was approved, 50-46. YEA—WRONG; NAY—RIGHT. (Later in session, resolution was brought to vote, defeated.)	R	R
2. DEPRESSED AREAS AID, S. 1, March 14, 1961 Hundreds of communities in all sections of U.S. were hard hit by loss of industry, severe unemployment. Bill set up new agency, provided $394 million to help these areas attract industry, create new jobs. Attempt to cripple the bill was rejected, 49-45. YEA—WRONG; NAY—RIGHT.		R
3. UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS, H.R. 4806, March 16, 1961 Granted additional aid to jobless who had exhausted unemployment benefits. At the time, nearly 7 percent of work force was unemployed. Many workers had been without jobs for 4, 5, 6 and more months. Move to deprive jobless in some states of full benefits was rejected, 44-42. YEA—WRONG; NAY—RIGHT.	R	R
4. PAY BASE COVERAGE SAVED, H.R. 3935, April 19, 1961 Attempt to clamp unfair limit on new minimum wage coverage, block future efforts to extend coverage was rejected, 56-39. YEA—WRONG; NAY—RIGHT.	R	R
5. AID TO EDUCATION, S. 1021, May 25, 1961 Nationwide shortages of more than 140,000 classrooms and more than 135,000 teachers cheat some 10 million grammar and high school pupils of a first class education. Bill provided $2½ billion for three-year program to help states build new schools, boost teachers' salaries to bring qualified new people into the profession. Passed in Senate, 49-34. YEA—RIGHT; NAY—WRONG. (Failure of House to act killed bill.)	R	R
6. HOUSING, S. 1922, June 8, 1961 Provided better housing loan program for moderate-income families, plus large boost in public housing funds for low-income families. Effort to restore moderate-income loan program after it was knocked out was approved, 47-42. YEA—RIGHT; NAY—WRONG.		R
7. POWER FOR THE NORTHWEST, H.R. 7576, July 18, 1961 Provided $95 million to build generating facilities at Hanford, Wash., nuclear reactor, to create needed power for Northwest through atomic energy. Attempt to deny $95 million provision was rejected, 54-36. YEA—WRONG; NAY—RIGHT. (House killed provision in final bill.)	R	R
8. TRAINING JOBLESS, S. 1991, Aug. 23, 1961 Thousands of workers have lost their jobs to machines. This bill took a step toward meeting the problems of automation, providing $655 million for four-year program to retrain jobless in new skills. Attempt to cut program to two years, with only $255 million—totally inadequate to meet the need—was rejected, 44-43. YEA—WRONG; NAY—RIGHT.		R
9. BREAK FOR FARM WORKERS, H.R. 2010, Sept. 11, 1961 Mexican farm workers are badly underpaid, exploited by growers, undercutting wages for domestic farm workers. Amendment assured Mexican farm workers 90 percent of average state or national wage, helped them and domestic workers. Approved, 42-40. YEA—RIGHT; NAY—WRONG.
10. PUBLIC WORKS TO CREATE JOBS, S. 2965, May 28, 1962 High jobless rate called for massive public works program to lift economy, create jobs. Bill provided $600 million for immediate public works in hard-hit areas. Move to boost to $750 million for broader program was approved, 43-32. YEA—RIGHT; NAY—WRONG.	—	R
11. HEALTH CARE FOR THE AGED, H.R. 10606, July 17, 1962 Cost of medical care soared 47 percent since 1950. Hospital rates doubled, now average $35 a day. Hardest hit are old folks who require three times as much hospital care as others, have incomes only half as much. Amendment to bill would have brought health care for elderly under social security, eased burden of high cost. Defeat for the people, victory for American Medical Assn., as amendment was killed, 52-48. YEA—WRONG; NAY—RIGHT.	R	R

Glenn Anderson is a native Californian. He was educated in our public schools and has achieved success as a businessman. When only 27, he was elected Mayor of Hawthorne, then served four terms in the California Legislature. During World War II he waived legislative deferment and served in the Armed Forces. Now, at 49, he has the background, the ability and the record to serve California at the highest executive level.

COMMITTEE TO RE-ELECT LT. GOVERNOR GLENN ANDERSON
1163 Market St., San Francisco • 6026 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles

NOW MORE THAN EVER

CALIFORNIA LEADS

KEEP HIM ON THE JOB WORKING FOR You

As President of the Senate, Lt. Gov. Anderson has won the respect of Democrats and Republicans alike in his fair and statesmanlike handling of this difficult job.

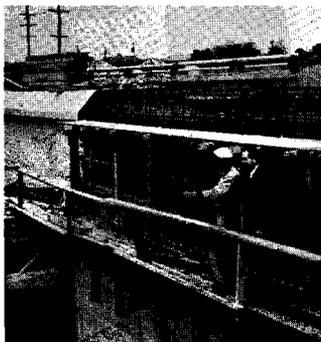

As a Regent of the University of California and a Member of the Board of Trustees of California State Colleges, Glenn has achieved national recogniton as a result of the new California Master Plan for Higher Education which coordinates the activities of Jr. colleges, state colleges, universities and private institutions of higher learning. Other States are beginning to copy this program.

His praiseworthy work as Chairman of both the important Lands Commission and Commission on Inter-State Cooperation has saved our taxpayers millions of dollars and has also demonstrated Glenn's ability as a proven leader during this most successful Democratic administration.

Governor Brown and Lt. Governor Anderson constantly work together to develop sound long-range plans in such vital areas as California economy, schools, mental health care and highways.

A construction worker points out progress on a freeway structure in Los Angeles County to Lt. Governor Anderson.

Glenn's charming wife Lee takes time from a busy schedule to prepare the Lt. Governor's favorite dish.

WHY CALIFORNIA NEEDS ANDERSON...A FEW OF THE REASONS:

CIVIL RIGHTS

For more than a quarter of a century Glenn Anderson has consistently demonstrated his firm belief that human rights and the liberties of the individual must not be compromised, whether attacked from the right or the left.

CALIFORNIA ECONOMY

Only continuing economic growth and prosperity can provide enough jobs for our growing population. Total personal income for the last quarter of 1961 increased one-third more for California residents than for Americans as a whole. Lt. Governor Anderson urged the establishment of the office of economic development and supports its activity in stimulating the expansion of California commerce and attracting new industry in order that California may continue to lead in economic as well as population growth.

LABOR

The working men and women of California have no better friend than Lt. Governor Anderson. He has urged specific legislation, not only for the benefit of organized labor but has also supported broad programs for the good of all wage earners and the protection of all consumers.

EDUCATION

Lt. Governor Anderson has long been a leader to assure our State the kind of public education from the child's first day in kindergarten, which will give our youth the greatest opportunity for self advancement and prepare him to make his best contribution to his community. As a Regent of the University of California and a Member of the Board of Trustees of California State Colleges, Anderson works hard to see that higher education does its share in helping California and our nation meet the international and domestic challenges of today and the future.

RE-ELECT LT. GOVERNOR GLENN ANDERSON

Americans Agree . . .

California Congress of Parents and Teachers (PTA): "Procedures as set up in Proposition 24 would infringe on civil liberties as guaranteed by the Bill of Rights."

California State Chamber of Commerce: "While the State Chamber of Commerce opposes communism in all its manifestations and supports a vigorous effort by all lawful means to stamp out Communist infiltration, it believes that enactment of this ill-conceived measure would, in the long run, only defeat its own purpose."

California Labor Federation (AFL-CIO): "Proposition 24 replaces present wholly adequate constitutional protections against subversion with a totally irresponsible new article, containing vague, uncertain and ambiguous terms and procedures that would gravely jeopardize cherished American freedoms."

Los Angeles Times: "The odious feature of Section 3 lies in the privileged irresponsibility of the whole array of denouncers. The accused has no recourse against them, even though an accusation of communism can be a deadly charge. It can ruin the accused even though it is unproved. . . . Section 3 . . . not only confers new and incredibly dangerous authority on grand juries, but gives the same triple power of accusation, conviction and in effect sentencing to certain individual state officers and to a host of federal officials and agencies."

BISHOP JAMES A. PIKE: Proposition 24 "would hand over to the extremists in this state the legal weapons to destroy our precious American heritage of constitutional liberty."

STATE SENATOR HUGH BURNS, Chairman of the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Un-American Activities: "We have made no recommendations (for new anti-subversive laws) because our studies show that federal laws, enforced by federal officers, are coping with the problem."

. . . . Defend YOUR Freedom

YES, IT COULD HAPPEN HERE! False witnesses could brand individuals and organizations subversive without even a trial—cause loss of employment, affect property rights, impair citizenship and jeopardize security of person. Charges could be brought in secret, in a far county, or even in a remote state. The action could be completed before the accused even knew that it had been instituted. Under Proposition 24, an accusation of subversion made by any of a host of federal, state or local bodies—operating without judicial safeguards or the restraints of constitutional due process—could automatically bring down upon the innocent devastating consequences.

PENALTIES UNDER PROPOSITION 24 could include loss of: State and local tax exemptions, all opportunity for public employment, the right to hold public office, the use of public buildings. Proposition 24 could wreck careers, businesses, reputations, and even the lives of private, patriotic citizens.

FOR EXAMPLE, PROPOSITION 24 WOULD VEST GRAND JURIES WITH ASTOUNDING POWERS. Grand juries are not trial juries. Their function is to present complaints. Grand juries operate behind closed doors, without judge or defense counsel or the opportunity to confront witnesses. Yet under Proposition 24, a grand jury could try, convict and subject its victims to automatic sentence.

Proposition 24 would destroy the very constitutional guarantees which are our strongest bulwark against Communism.

DRAMATIC HIGHLIGHTS in the distinguished record of ATTORNEY GENERAL Stanley MOSK

DYNAMIC LEADER ...in the war against crime

First in the nation to make the criminals pay for the training of peace officers through the Peace Officers Standards and Training Commission. First to establish a state-wide agency for gathering statistical information on narcotic crimes. Urged the passage of strict narcotics laws.

VIGOROUS DEFENDER ...of free enterprise and honest business

First to establish an Antitrust Section to protect the consumer, the businessman and the taxpayer from unfair trade practices and rigged bids. A Consumer Fraud Section is another "First." A new Business Frauds Section handles large scale economic crimes like the "ten percenter" operations. Also sponsored — and is now enforcing — the state's toughest law on diploma mills.

VIGILANT PROTECTOR ...of civil rights and liberties

First to establish a Constitutional Rights Section to guarantee the equal opportunity of all Californians in such areas as housing and business.

AGGRESSIVE FIGHTER ...for California's rights

First to urge Congressional clarification of states' water rights. Argued the California-Arizona water case before the United States Supreme Court. Currently defending California's interest in oil-rich tidelands and the fifty-two million dollar harbor subsidence suits.

U. S. Supreme Court Building during water case hearings.

I BELIEVE...

"That America is the hope of the world; that California is destined to be the greatest of these United States.

That this nation's basic strength is in its rule of law... from the constitution to local ordinances.

That we must protect and defend the rights guaranteed to each individual by the Bill of Rights and the Constitutions of the United States and California.

That the strength of our free enterprise system depends upon the preservation of free and honest competition.

That the Attorney General must take the lead in seeking new methods under law in the never-ending battle against crime and its causes.

That the price of liberty is eternal vigilance, and that strong, experienced leadership is essential to the perpetuation of our great republic."

Attorney General Stanley MOSK...

The Attorney General is the lawyer for the State, and is concerned with law enforcement throughout California. He provides legal counsel to all of the State's constitutional officers, departments, boards and agencies. He serves the legal needs of the state and safeguards the rights and property of all its people.

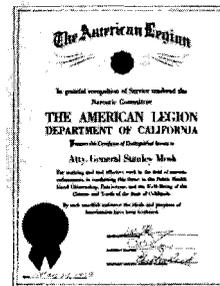

Assisted by a staff of 150 highly competent attorneys, your Attorney General is the head of one of the largest "law firms" in the world. He directs the 1,000 civil servants who compose the Department of Justice.

While there is no state police force, the Attorney General furnishes valuable aid and information in the areas of crime detection and investigation to local law enforcement agencies throughout the State.

HIS PRINCIPLES, HIS EXPERIENCE, HIS ACCOMPLISHMENTS

one of the nation's newest and finest crime labs

American Legion Award for effective narcotics enforcement; half million dollars of illicit drugs seized by state agents last year

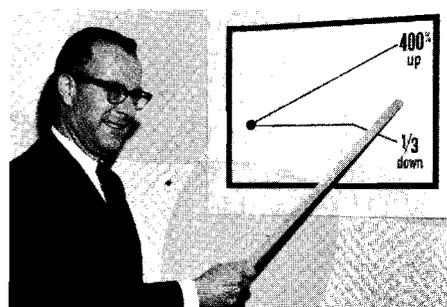

A SUCCESSFUL ADMINISTRATOR... THOROUGH, EFFICIENT, RESPECTED

nearly 500 criminal prosecutions always pending; 90% successful honored for defense of human rights anti-trust prosecutions up; cost to taxpayers down

When California's future rests on an argument in a court of law, our state must have the best lawyer it can get. With twenty-seven years of legal experience in California—including sixteen years as a Superior Court Judge and a term as Attorney General—Stanley Mosk has been an outstanding figure in California jurisprudence.

IN PRIVATE LIFE... A LEADER IN HIS COMMUNITY

The Attorney General must see that the laws of California and their enforcement are adapted to meet the changing needs of this fastest growing state. He personally visits cities and towns throughout California to discuss problems of law enforcement and methods of crime prevention with peace officers and civic groups. In addition to regular meetings with peace officers, Attorney General Mosk initiated California's first state-wide crime prevention conference.

The California Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO, through its publication, "The Sacramento Story—Labor and the Legislature," reported that during the 1961 session of the Legislature, conservative Senators from rural districts killed 72 measures written to protect the rights, the safety, the health and the security of all California working men and women.

The AFL-CIO nationally has been conducting a fight for proper reapportionment and representation for urban areas in all legislative bodies. In the October 1962 issue of the American Federationist, the AFL-CIO points out that California is suffering more than any other state from rural domination and inadequate representation for metropolitan areas. AFL-CIO policy historically has supported reapportionment and proper representation. It has supported this position through legal action and activities requiring the expenditure of considerable sums of money.

DEMOCRAT FOR

FOR EVERY OFFICE!
 For SECRETARY OF STATE
 A. - 964 Market St., S.F.

Dear California Voter,

The Secretary of State is the chief election officer of California.

The incumbent Secretary of State, in the 20 years he has held this office, has demonstrated a shocking failure to meet the problem of efficient and accurate handling of millions of ballots cast in our elections. In 1960 we couldn't find out if Nixon or Kennedy won in California. In the June primary of this year, many contests were not officially decided for more than a month.

It is time for a change. It is time to bring California up to date in this vital office.

I ask for your vote, and I pledge that if I am elected, I will use every possible means to make all Californians proud of the office of Secretary of State.

Sincerely,

Alan Rose

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA

Dear Fellow State Employee:

I am proud of the Civil Service System in California as one of the strongest of any in the fifty states. For the past twenty-five years, it has been responsible in large part for the tremendous service which the citizens of California have received from their state government.

For almost two decades, I have been a government employee myself. During my two terms as District Attorney in San Francisco, my two terms as Attorney General of California, and my term as Governor, I have always had a tremendous admiration for the outstanding job which has been done by our dedicated civil servants. As evidence of this, I cite the large number of appointments in my administration which have come out of civil service ranks. Compare that record to my opponent's statements that we must "clean the mess out of Sacramento".

Inequitable salary situations must continue to be analyzed and corrected. This will be given top priority next year as it was given this year. I pledge to continue this program in the future. I support your right to be paid prevailing wages, and your absolute right to receive a fair return for your dedicated service.

Your right to engage in political activity on your own, including your right to resist any threat of management reprisal, and your right to be heard and consulted on the areas that vitally affect your interest have also been jealously guarded by this administration. Your vote is your most important heritage in this great democracy of ours. Be sure to vote on November 6th for the candidates of your choice. I believe that my record warrants your support.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN, GOVERNOR

What they say about Brown

Arthur McCardle, Brown's chairman of the Veteran Board, resigned with these words:

I have nothing but absolute disgust and repulsion for the lies, deceit and treachery coming out of Sacramento.

Robert McCarthy, Brown's Chief of the Department of Motor Vehicles, resigned with this blast:

It has become increasingly difficult for me to work for a spineless administration that lacks both courage and principles.

My attempts to curb the drunk driver, while initially receiving lip service, saw you cave in to pressure for a softer law. Leadership here could have saved lives. These experiences are symptomatic of a lack of administration.

This is the record of Brown "firsts" for California

FIRST in individual tax load.

FIRST in total number of state employees and payroll.

FIRST in business failures among major business states.

FIRST in bankruptcies.

FIRST in highway fatalities.

FIRST in major crime.

BROWN

"box-score"

in nine crucial areas

TAXES

FACT: California today has the highest total state and local tax collections in the nation.

FACT: In Brown's first year as governor, the largest single tax increase in the history of any state became law in California.

FACT: During Brown's four years as governor, per capita tax collections have gone up 23% . . . per capita income only 9%.

QUESTION: Can California stand 4 more years of tax increases? YES NO

JOBS

FACT: Brown's high-tax policies are preventing new industries from coming to California — and even forcing some existing businesses to leave California.

FACT: California unemployment is above the national average.

FACT: New York had more than three times as many new industrial plants start last year as California.

QUESTION: Do you want to see the Brown trend continued . . . with more and more California jobs — perhaps your job — threatened? YES NO

LEADERSHIP

FACT: Brown has a world-wide reputation — for indecision. Cases where he has embarrassed Californians include among others:

- (1) the Democratic Convention in 1960;
- (2) the Chessman case; (3) outlawing professional boxing in California; (4) need for narcotics legislation in California.

QUESTION: With California industry, agriculture and labor threatened by foreign competition, should our state have a governor who lacks national or international stature or experience . . . a man who has consistently failed to stand up and protect our interests? YES NO

EFFICIENCY IN GOVERNMENT

FACT: California's state government spends more money than any other state in the nation.

FACT: The costs of running Brown's own office have increased 52.7% since he became governor.

layer of "fat" — i.e., his "superagency" plan.

QUESTION: Should California's future growth be penalized by Brown's bureaucratic empire? YES NO

CRIME AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

FACT: California has the worst record of major crime in the nation, in spite of the efforts of dedicated local law-enforcement officials.

FACT: In 1959 and 1960, Brown ignored the need for better narcotics control legislation, despite a petition signed by hundreds of thousands of citizens, despite pleas from civic and church groups, despite deaths in Los Angeles County High Schools.

FACT: In 1961, Brown consistently delayed effective narcotics legislation until the State Legislature forced him to act.

QUESTION: Do you think the present governor, by word or deed, has recognized the seriousness of the problem and do you think he is capable of supplying the leadership to attack it? YES NO

EDUCATION

FACT: California has the largest number of students of any state in the nation, but in the pupil/teacher ratio (number of students per teacher), ranks 44th.

FACT: The "Master Plan For Education" claimed by Brown as one of his accomplishments, is actually a bi-partisan achievement, with most of the work done in the Knight administration.

QUESTION: Can California afford a second-rate educational system? YES NO

FACT: The Fair Employment Practices Commission established during the Brown regime has made no significant breakthroughs in opening up closed fields of employment.

FACT: Brown's Democrat legislators redistricted the majority of Los Angeles Negroes into one Congressional district, forming, in effect, a Negro "ghetto." The Los Angeles Sentinel commented as follows: "... the actions of the Democratic liberals on representation in government reveal them as the true enemy of the development and self-expression of our community."

FACT: At the Governors' Conference in 1962, Brown said he didn't want a resolution on civil rights ever presented, because it might "divide" the Democrats. When a resolution

QUESTION: Are you proud of a governor with such a record in the field of equal opportunities and civil rights? YES NO

AGRICULTURE

FACT: The Brown administration has urged a state minimum wage law for farm workers, which would place many California farmers in a position where they could not possibly compete with other states.

FACT: Brown has made three "political appointments" to the key position of Director of Agriculture. The first, William Warne, a former Federal Foreign Aid Administrator, was cited by Senate and House Committees for "boondoggling" in Iran, Korea and Brazil. (Warne TODAY is Brown's Director of Water Resources.) The second appointment to the Agriculture post, James Ralph, was subsequently fired from a national administration post (Assistant Secretary of Agriculture) for involvement in the Billie Sol Estes case. The third appointment, Charles Paul, was picked for political purposes over the heads of qualified career men.

QUESTION: Can California hope to compete successfully in the world agricultural market with its problems handled by misplaced persons, second-rate administrators and political hacks? YES NO

POLITICAL APPOINTMENTS

FACT: One of Brown's sons-in-law is Assistant to the State Director of Corrections.

FACT: Another of Brown's sons-in-law is a Deputy Attorney General.

FACT: Brown's brother is a State Inheritance Tax Appraiser.

FACT: Brown appointed Dutch Woxberg, a former Jimmy Hoffa aide to a state post (Small Boat Harbors Commission).

FACT: Brown's State Director of Finance is a newspaperman, without financial experience.

FACT: Regarding the appointment of judges, Brown says . . . "I have picked them irrespective of their politics." The record of judicial appointments: 165 Democrats, 34 Republicans, 1 no party affiliation.

QUESTION: Do you like political bossism . . . with government by-and-for cronies? YES NO

THIS IS THE C. D. C. POLITICAL MIND

The most potent campaign material we Republicans have was provided for us by the opposition. On February 12, 13 and 14, the California Democratic Council met in Fresno, in statewide convention. Some 2300 C.D.C. delegates from 500 Democratic clubs adopted the following resolutions:

1. Remold the United Nations into a world organization that can enact and interpret and enforce world law upon individuals and governments alike.
2. Demand the United States disarm—even if negotiations to achieve world disarmament fail, even if the U.S.S.R. does not disarm.
3. Include Red China in negotiations to halt nuclear tests.
4. Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities.
5. Abolish all loyalty oaths—state and federal.
6. Oppose all legislation which would inhibit the powers of the United States Supreme Court.
7. Outlaw secret Congressional Committee hearings (thus making top-secret testimony available to public et al.).
8. Strip the Postmaster General of powers to halt the use of the U. S. mails by the purveyors of pornographic materials.
9. Extend all-out Federal aid to education, including funds for teachers' salaries.
10. Extend the right to organize and the right to strike to all public employees, firemen, police officers, etc.
11. Repeal the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill of 1959.
12. Liberalize unemployment insurance benefits and statutes.
13. Ban the use of Mexican nationals and other aliens for farm work.
14. Request the President to review the Morton Sobel treason conviction to secure "Ultimate justice" (vindication).
15. Repeal the relatives' responsibility law, requiring children to contribute to support of aged.
16. Increase economic aid to underdeveloped nations and reduce military assistance abroad.
17. Establish local police review boards to hear complaints against police methods.

REMEMBER: All California Democrat candidates are committed to these stands adopted by their Council of Democratic Clubs.

CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATIC COUNCIL

WHEN THE CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATIC COUNCIL was formed in 1953, or thereabouts, by a small group of ambitious politicians, including State Senator George Miller, Alan Cranston (now state controller) and Richard Richards (now State Senator), a new era began in state politics.

The CDC had all the potentials of a political machine. And its general success in political action has accelerated its growth and power. Thus today the conglomeration of clubs (approximately 500) which compose the council represent a threat not only to the Republican Party, its philosophy and its candidates, but also to a free and independent Democratic Party.

Undoubtedly more representative of the extreme left than of the general body of Democrats the CDC nevertheless has wangled itself into a position of such strength it would now be extremely difficult for a Democrat to win nomination and election if the CDC turned thumbs down. Generally, members of the CDC regard themselves as liberals. Democrats with less extreme views regard them as "ultra liberals." Republicans lump them in the left wing division of politics.

The point is, the council and its members represent an extreme in partisan philosophy and action, which is not to intimate that many or most of the members are not sincere, earnest citizens who seek the best for themselves and their fellows. But the goals of such an organization, the inevitable progress it must make either to greater and greater political power or to dissolution are specific rather than general.

Perhaps you may approve of some of their goals. But a projection into action of such doctrines not only would effect basic changes in our governmental forms and policies but would set in motion various influences designed to effect still more radical modifications. Here you have a powerful organization already prepared to select, elect and to some extent control Democratic officeholders. In this connection you may recall the eager manner in which Governor Edmund Brown reminded the CDC in its recent convention in Fresno how much of its program he has managed to translate into law. It is not that this organization has mushroomed into so much political prominence and power in so short a time, nor is it primarily important that the CDC does not truly represent the Democratic rank and file.

The importance lies in the fact that the council is organized, is directed with professional skill, has its eye on specific objectives and can more or less dictate the party's candidate selections and broad commitments. Probably the least effective assault upon the CDC would take the form of intemperate denunciation and a wildly alarmed endeavor to break it up. The CDC may not be here to stay, but it is here and will be around for some time to come. The best way to keep such a group within bounds is to maintain a watch on its activities, give close scrutiny to the issues it espouses and turn a critical eye on the candidates it endorses.

There is some dispute as to the real membership of the council, but a close estimate might be 35,000. And taking the state's Democratic registration into consideration, it would appear that the CDC membership represents about 1% of the party strength which goes to show how badly disorganized the Democrats were before the council rose to power. The rise of the CDC also emphasizes the decline of Republican ascendancy in California. For 50 years the GOP managed by political integrity, agility and a run of candidates slightly above the common level to attract a majority of the state's voters. IT WAS NOT THE ABOLITION OF CROSSFILING SO MUCH AS A FALLING AWAY OF REPUBLICAN PARTY SOLIDARITY AND ENTHUSIASM that enabled the better organized Democrats to seat a governor, grab control of the State Legislature and take over all but one of the state's constitutional offices.

Now, possibly, opportunity again knocks on the Republican door. All that is needed is manpower, campaign financing, good candidates and a will to win.

To: Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin
and others to whom it may concern:

From: A loyal, voting Democrat

I have every reason to believe that the majority of Republicans are honest and sincere in their political thinking. They have every reason to support and work for their candidate.

But whom do you think you're fooling! A Republican posing as a Democrat for Nixon is a dishonest citizen--as dishonest & fictitious as this piece of campaign mis-information.

We Democrats are sometimes said to have differing opinions, on one thing we are certainly united--we all have an aversion to Nixon. So whom do you think you're fooling with all this trash you're mailing under the "Democrats for Nixon" label?

As for this "slime sheet", it is too slick for me; I'm sure, Mr. Griffin, it would work better on yours.

Legislative Accomplishments

OF

Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown
DURING HIS PRESENT TERM OF OFFICE
1959 - 1962

NATION'S LEADERS HAIL CALIFORNIA PROGRESS

PRESIDENT KENNEDY...

"Under Governor Brown's leadership, California has moved ahead with sound social and economic programs, modernized and expanded its educational system, developed an historic water program, passed laws guaranteeing the right to fair employment and enacted other progressive legislation benefiting all California.

"We in Washington are cognizant of these and other truly significant achievements. They constitute a proud record. California, the state which is soon to be first in population, should continue to have as its Chief Executive a humane and enlightened leader."

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN...

"No other state has better law enforcement than California... Every part of the state I've seen looks to be in wonderfully good shape. It makes me feel good to see the way the State of California is moving forward, not only in private industry but in government. It is fine to see what good the state government is doing for the welfare of the people. I'm pleased to see the state so conservation-minded with the idea of preserving resources for the generations to follow. It is a thrill to see what is happening statewide in the education field."

10 POINTS FOR PROGRESS

Governor Pat Brown's bold proposals for a still greater California

PAT BROWN, THE NATION'S LEADING GOVERNOR

His proud record of achievement ★ His 10 point plan for the future

EDUCATION

Under Governor Brown, California has the strongest public school system in America. Your children receive a tuition-free education from kindergarten through college. Six thousand new classrooms a year have cut the number of students in half-day sessions 60%. The state invests 42¢ of every tax dollar in public education.

Governor Brown now pledges: To increase state aid to local school districts to relieve the burden on the local property taxpayer. To place new emphasis on vocational courses to reduce high school dropouts. To equalize educational opportunities in poor districts. To expand use of educational TV.

FULL EMPLOYMENT

In the past year alone, California's fast-moving economy produced more than 220,000 new jobs. Employment is at an all-time high. We now have 25% of the Nation's defense contracts and 42% of all Space Age research and development contracts. New industries are moving into California at a record-breaking pace.

Governor Brown now pledges: To work for a goal of 250,000 new jobs next year. To teach a second skill to workers facing displacement by automation. To improve industrial rehabilitation and social insurance programs. To give out-of-state industries new encouragement to locate in California.

ECONOMIC GROWTH

All indicators point to increasing prosperity for California. Wages and per capita income are at record levels. Retail sales and profits are at new highs. The construction industry is moving again. Farmers will harvest their biggest crop in history. Exports of California products are at all-time highs.

Governor Brown now pledges: To launch a Master Plan for Economic Growth, coordinating state planning with emerging industrial and population patterns. To develop new markets for small business. To achieve maximum exports to the Common Market. To broaden constructive approaches to labor-management relations.

LAW ENFORCEMENT AND ANTI-SUBVERSION

In the face of a population growth of 600,000 a year, California is winning the fight against crime. Tough new laws keep the narcotics peddler behind bars and deter the commission of major offenses. A Senate watch-dog committee and state loyalty oaths safeguard against subversion and un-American activities.

Governor Brown now pledges: To stop the growing menace of dangerous drugs with prison terms matching our present narcotics laws. To give stronger enforcement tools to local law agencies. To expand anti-Communist teaching in our schools. To defend constitutional rights against attack by extremists of either the left or the right.

GOVERNMENTAL EFFICIENCY

Under Governor Brown, there has been no increase in state taxes since 1959. Annual tax reductions totalling more than $25 million have been approved in the last 18 months and we are carrying a $45 million surplus in the Treasury. All of the Governor's budgets have been in balance—not one penny of deficit spending.

Governor Brown now pledges: To ask for no new taxes in 1963 despite huge gains in population and demands for government services. To remove 840,000 low income citizens from the state income tax rolls. To complete reorganization of state government to reduce expenditures and improve services to the public.

AGRICULTURE

California is the richest agriculture state in the Nation. The harvest this year again will exceed $3 billion—and again will be the biggest in history. Construction is already underway on the massive California Water Project to channel abundant water to farmers in our great agricultural valleys. Strong marketing orders protect the farmer's competitive position.

Governor Brown now pledges: To send agricultural trade attaches abroad to promote exports of California farm products in the Common Market and other nations. To press vigorously for early completion of state and federal water projects benefiting agriculture. To give our farmers greater representation before regulatory agencies in Washington.

HUMAN RIGHTS AND SECURITY

California's social welfare system, stressing rehabilitation, not charity, is a national model. The elderly, the lame and the blind are secure from poverty and indignity. Our racial minorities have the strongest protections in history from job discrimination under California's first Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Governor Brown now pledges: To step up vocational training of welfare recipients to remove even larger numbers from the welfare rolls. To provide still more medical care for the elderly. To increase assistance to local mental health clinics. To enact new protection against discrimination in schools, housing and the professions.

NATURAL RESOURCES

Under Governor Brown, California is building the largest water system in history—a 700-mile system of dams and aqueducts to relieve northern floods and southern droughts. The state also is combating air pollution from motor vehicles. A high priority is given to keeping beach land and wilderness areas in public ownership.

Governor Brown now pledges: To meet the earliest construction deadlines on the water project. To honor all water contract commitments. To improve ground water conditions in coastal and valley areas. To protect wilderness areas from fire, erosion and plant disease by increasing the number of conservation camps.

RECREATION

We are now acquiring more new beaches and parks than ever before in California's history. New freeways and highways afford swift access to recreational areas. Protection of fish and game is first in the Nation. California has the greatest number of sportsmen of all the 50 states.

Governor Brown now pledges: To give boatmen, campers and sportsmen the fullest possible use of the many reservoirs to be built under the California Water Plan. To develop access to present wilderness areas. To acquire more new beaches, parks and campsites. To fight industrial pollution of fishing waters.

FUTURE PLANNING

Realistic planning under Governor Brown enables California to absorb 600,000 new citizens a year. Master Plans for Freeways and Higher Education anticipate present and future requirements. Authorities in all fields join with government in planning the orderly growth of the first state in the Nation.

10

Governor Brown now pledges: To assign top priority to mass rapid transit. To cooperate fully with local governments to eliminate slums and congestion in major cities. To assist urban redevelopment through prompt relocation of families displaced by freeway and other construction. To launch a scenic highway system.

Brown For Governor

San Francisco Examiner
Truth, Justice • Public Service
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1962

THIS NEWSPAPER recommends the re-election of Governor Edmund G. "Pat" Brown. We do so in glad obedience to a long and admirable American tradition. It is the tradition that says a public official who does a good job is entitled to a second term.

We feel Governor Brown has done such a job, a solid and impressive job of major things accomplished for his native California.

Because this is so, a sense of fair play compels us to recommend Governor Brown to our readers even though we have the highest regard and respect for his Republican opponent, Richard M. Nixon.

This is not the place to review the full record of Mr. Brown. Instead let us cite three Brown accomplishments of such paramount importance that they, standing alone, entitle him to a second term.

Mr. Brown inherited a state debt of $60 million. Far worse, this debt would grow to a quarter of a billion dollars within a single year unless the then new Governor acted decisively. Mr. Brown did act, not only decisively but courageously. He pushed through the Legislature a combined program of new taxes and economies that wiped out the debt and balanced the budget that very year.

Thus he turned the threat of fiscal chaos into a regime of fiscal responsibility, and has maintained that responsibility to this day. Every state budget has been balanced, and minor tax cuts made where possible.

With the State's finances in order, the Governor turned all his energies to the $1.75 billion Feather River Project, a deadlocked issue that had kept California in bitter turmoil for more than a decade. With logic, with persuasion and with plain political brawn, he pushed it through the Legislature and onto the ballot. Then he personally led the campaign that resulted in the public's approval of the water bonds at the polls.

Today work is actually underway on the world's greatest water project, assuring California of the vast water supply so indispensable to the State's destiny.

That behind him, Mr. Brown undertook the task of putting California's sprawling house of higher education in order. The University of California and the State College System were undertaking forced draft expansion to absorb the flood tide of new students. At the same time they were engaged in costly rivalries and duplications that threatened to put a staggering load on taxpayers.

Governor Brown's solution was the Master Plan of Higher Education, a blueprint that assigned specific roles and duties to the many institutions of higher learning. Today the forced draft expansion still goes on, of hard necessity. But it is clean, orderly expansion. This achievement of the Brown administration, though less spectacular than the other two, may well come to be regarded in future years as his greatest.

The Democratic Mr. Brown approached and achieved these tasks in the bipartisan tradition made famous by Hiram Johnson and Earl Warren. He sought out and freely acknowledged the help of many Republican leaders of like spirit.

We submit that California is booming today, and its people are moving forward confidently, in major part because the Brown administration carried out these three paramount tasks while providing honest government.

Our high regard for Richard Nixon, his opponent, is surely well known. In other years we supported Mr. Nixon for United States Senator, for Vice President and for President. Our admiration for his abilities in national and foreign affairs is undiminished.

But we also supported Mr. Brown when he was elected Governor in 1958. We told our readers he would be the good Governor he has proved to be.

In the absence of a compelling reason we will not turn away from a Governor who has fulfilled his covenant with the people. The mere fact that the able Mr. Nixon wants the job is not a compelling reason.

Governor Brown has earned re-election.

Your ballot was never more important than it will be on November 6. It is your only effective way of having your say on the kind of govern- you want and on the kind of policies you think it should follow.

Just as it is important that you vote, it is also vital that you vote the full ballot. Your failure to vote on any single office can be just as costly in that particular contest as failing to vote at all. Be sure you vote on November 6, and when you vote, vote a full ballot.

We offer you our recommendations in these pages in the hope that in reaching your decisions you will give them your earnest considera- tion. They have been carefully drawn to represent the best interests of the most people.

*The youngster in school... the worker... the businessman... the senior citizen—we all benefit from an administration that cares about people.

The record speaks for itself...

California schools finest, fastest growing in U. S.

A stronger curriculum, emphasizing "solid" subjects, not "frills."

Statewide testing of elementary and high school students to insure consistently high educational standards.

Reform of teachers' credentials, requiring college training in the subjects taught.

A pay-as-we-go Master Plan for Higher Education—the first in California history.

A new University of California medical school in San Diego and new State Colleges in the Los Angeles, Riverside-San Bernardino and Sonoma areas.

A $26 million increase in daily average attendance aid to local school districts.

An increase of 12½% in University and State College teacher salaries.

A 100% increase in state scholarships.

Realistic planning to provide classrooms and teachers for 200,000 new students a year.

Unemployment pay advances from $40 to $55 a week

An increase in maximum unemployment benefits from $40 to $55 a week—highest in the Nation.

Thirteen-week extension of unemployment benefits for recession victims.

Increases in maximum Workmen's Compensation and Disability Insurance from $50 to $70 a week.

Job retraining for industrial employees displaced by automation—another historic first.

A special placement service in the Department of Employment to find positions for older workers.

Pioneering medical care for migrant farm workers.

Acceleration of school construction, freeways and other capital projects to relieve unemployment at peak of 1960-61 recession.

Consumer Counsel protects buyer from sales frauds

Creation of California's first Consumer Counsel office to assist buyers and protect them against unprincipled selling practices.

Repeal of sales tax on prescription drugs.

Crackdown on cancer quacks and advance fee real estate brokers.

Tighter regulation of retail credit practices and "referral" sales schemes.

Rigid controls on "10 percenter" mortgage dealers.

Savings of millions to consumers through more exact methods of computing retail sales taxes.

Basic minimum benefit requirements for health insurance policies sold in the state, and a clear definition of actual benefits to policy-holders.

Labeling of hazardous substances to protect our children.

New controls on purity of cosmetics.

Big water plan lifestream of state's future growth

Construction already under way on the Governor's $1.75 billion California Water Plan to reduce flood danger, relieve critical water shortages and create vast new recreation areas for the public.

Governor Brown won legislative and voter approval of the massive project after years of wasteful stalemate in earlier administrations. The plan insures Southern California growth, while protecting Northern California water rights.

Greater state assistance in construction of small craft harbors, acquisition of new beaches and parks and access to hunting and fishing areas.

Recreational enhancement law provides maximum recreational development in connection with state water projects.

A five-year Wilderness Conservation Plan and a $750,000 annual appropriation for fish and wildlife conservation.

BUSINESS CLIMATE BEST IN NATION

California's business climate and economic growth are the best in the nation, according to Governor Brown's report on the state's economy. The report shows that California's economy is growing at a rate of 10.7% and that the state's unemployment rate is 12.7%. The report also notes that California's economy is the most dynamic in the nation and that the state is generating 200,000 new jobs a year.

THE CALIFORNIA ECONOMY HAS GROWN FROM $400,000,000 TO $6,000,000,000—UP 7%. MORE CALIFORNIANS ARE WORKING TODAY THAN EVER BEFORE AND OUR DYNAMIC ECONOMY IS GENERATING 200,000 NEW JOBS A YEAR!

Dear Harold:

It was nice to hear from you again. Certainly you may use my American Bar Association prize essay, "The Living Proxy."

I should also like to say this, and you may quote me if you wish in any pamphlet you are thinking about getting out, that I have known Pat for 27 or 28 years. He was our leader in the New Order of Cincinnatus when we organized in the State of California. Many people will remember the nonpartisan young men's organization that came out in the depression 30's and cleaned up the mess that the old politicians had created. With our motto "win, lose or draw," we cut no corners. Up and down the Pacific Coast we succeeded in putting clean, honest and imaginative young men into public office. Following the principles of the old Roman, Cincinnatus, these men asked for no emoluments, except the right to serve their people. In looking back now, I find it a great satisfaction to find that out of the ranks of the New Order of Cincinnatus have come many Judges, including his Honor Fred Hamley on the Circuit Court of Appeals; Justices of the Supreme Court of your state and Judges in many counties of the Superior Court in my State of Washington. We also were fortunate in having two governors who got their start in politics in Cincinnatus, Arthur Langlie, a Republican of the State of Washington and Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, a Democrat of the State of California.

I know that Pat Brown, as a true Cincinnatus, is honest, trustworthy and a good public servant. I followed him through his career as District Attorney of San Francisco County, and I know something of the fine record he made in the Attorney General's office of your State.

Even though I am a Republican, I recommend him, a Democrat, for Governor of the great State of California. Also having followed Mr. Nixon's campaigns, I find no hesitancy in my mind or conscience in saying that I do sincerely hope that Pat Brown emerges from the November election as re-elected Governor of California. I know that the people can put their trust in Pat, as we young men of the New Order of Cincinnatus did way back in the 30's.

With best regards.

Sincerely,
RALPH B. POTTS

The Living Proxy

By RALPH BUSHNELL POTTS

NOTE: The following essay under the title of "The Responsibility of the Citizen as a Voter" was the prize winning entry in a contest conducted in 1945 by the Committee on American Citizenship of the American Bar Association.

The blood of free men stains my ballot sheet. Whatever others may do, I shall not carelessly make my mark. I vote not because I can but because I must. Those that died for this, my voice in government, had a right to expect that I would prepare with every faculty to use it wisely, honestly and courageously. They did not die that fools, blind partisans or the reckless might make a game of free elections.

Only my secret hearts knows whether I justify the definition of "voter" as they wrote it in the reddening sand. If I love my country as they did, I question my qualifications again and again.

I carefully study the issues and candidates to determine what is best, not for me or my minority but for my country.

I will not be confused or deceived by propaganda, slogans or histrionics. I shield my eyes to the glitter of personalities, purge my mind of passion and prejudice, and search diligently for the hidden truth. I must be free of all influences save that of conscience and justice.

I garden for dreams, but with a realistic spade. My test is not of trend or popularity, but of principle and liberty.

I vote as if my ballot alone decided the contest. I may lose my preference, but I will not throw away my sacred vote. For within the booth I hold in my humble hand the living proxy of all my country's honored dead.

A Message to You...

from

Your Governor

... More important than the election of any individual to public office is the interest of every citizen in good government.

... We all are familiar with the quotation, "Eternal Vigilance is the Price of Liberty." It is as true today as when those words were spoken.

... I feel that our State Government for the past three and one-half years has assumed its responsibility to the people with integrity, vision and vigor.

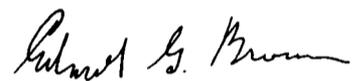

... Our budget has been balanced for three successive years.

... Our water program will aid in the development of our state's vast resources; will aid our economy and will keep our people employed and prosperous.

... Our educational system and our scientific studies lead the nation.

... We have closely cooperated with the Federal Government.

... Our great state departments of insurance, of banking, of corporations, and of labor are known throughout the United States for their efficiency and for the protection each affords our people.
