June 16, 1962

Dear Mr. Zweng:

Thank you for your letter of June 14th.

I certainly agree with you. Our toughest fight is coming up and we will be concentrating on that victory in November.

We are busy now reorganizing and regrouping for the general election period. You will be hearing from us later on as the program gets under way.

Best regards to you and to Captain Marsh. I trust he is feeling better by this time.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

Dear Bob Haldeman:

This is the first opportunity that I have had to congratulate you, and the headquarters on our victory in the Primary election.

As you know, our toughest job is coming up in the election in November, and we must take advantage of every opportunity that we can. I was wondering whether you have given thought to a strategy meeting as we did in the beginning, when we met at the Biltmore Hotel.

Captain Marsh, who visited you with me, has been laid up for a day or two with his back. Personally, I think he injured his sacroiliac. He has suggested that we bombard the voters with a small card, each one with a different message and a cartoon on one end of the card.

In the meantime, will you kindly contact Dick and see what he thinks about another strategy meeting.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Zweng:

Thanks for your note of
May 21st and your report on Matt
Cvetic's interview with Dr. Fifield.

In the thought you may not have seen the full text of Dick Nixon's statement on the Francis Amendment, I am enclosing a copy herewith for your information.

We appreciate your interest.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

Dear Mr. Haldeman:

Last night on television, the guest of Mr. Fifield, Pastor of the Congregational Church, was Matt Cvetic, who claims that he was an under-cover spy for the United States, formerly working in Philadelphia and Detroit.

Cvetic said, concerning a petition which is being circulated, although it was according to law, he did not give details of the nature of petition, so I assume that it was some sort of a petition to out-law Communist Membership in the United States. One important point was apparent, that he was there to sell his books about Communism. And he stated that Richard Nixon was against the petition.

I will also mention that Joe Shell was on television again and telling what he will do when he becomes Governor of the State of California. Shell seems to be copying the tactics used by President Kennedy, in making use of the television at every opportunity.

I am passing the information along to you for what it may be worth.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Zweng:

Thank you for your letter of May 17th.

You were kind to take the time to write us, and we always appreciate receiving comments and reports such as you provide.

Your encounter with your friend in Bullocks Wilshire is interesting and we are delighted to learn she will be actively securing the pledges of support.

Keep up the good work, and our thanks again for your interest.

Dear Mr. Haldeman:

Thank you for your letter of May 15th, in which you acknowledge the copy of the letter from Dan Smoot, also that you were grateful that we had the opportunity to discuss the campaign when Captain Marsh and I met with you.

Bob, this is going to be one of the toughest campaigns that I have ever been in and we must do everything possible to win, not only the primary, but in the election. It must also be with the decisive vote of the people. With this letter, I am sending you one of the Hollywood magazines, which runs along the line of Variety and other magazines published by the Motion Picture Industry. You will note that on page 2, the editor, Jaik Rosenstein, who, of course, is a Jew and is against Nixon on general principles, as they belong to the organization that wants to set up their own state within the United States, and all of the other "money changers". Note on page 2 the following:

'That Richard Nixon will be appointed chairman of the board if he loses the election for governor of California (which he definitely will).'

Of course, there is nothing that Dick Nixon, nor you nor I can advise, but ignore the trash that this editor publishes. We can, of course, know who our enemies are and guard against them.

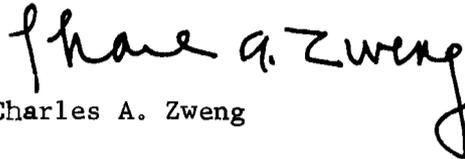

This week, I went shopping at Bullocks Wilshire, only a short distance from your office, and found a friend of mine who is going to seek as many pledges as possible for Nixon support. These she will obtain in a short time and I will mail the list to Doris Thielen at the earliest possible moment.

It is my opinion that we should take advantage of the idea that Captain Marsh has, as the cost is comparatively low and we can stop it any time we wish. You can depend on us to do everything possible

Dear Mr. Zweng:

Thank you for sending along the copy of your letter to Dan Smoot.

It was nice to see you and Captain Marsh the other day, and I am glad we had this chance to discuss the campaign and the interest you both are taking in it.

Kindest regards and best wishes.

Dear Mr. Smoot:

Last Sunday I happened to tune in on Dr. Fiefield and Friend. To my amazement, you were introduced as the friend. Later, to my great distress concerning you, I listened to you attack our former Vice-President, Richard M. Nixon. His life work practically parallels yours,

Born of poor parents, working his way through high school and college - leading the fight against master spy Hiss and the other spies; his life has been an open book.

Dan, it is well known the candidate Shell, a rich oilman, is using his money to defeat Nixon. It is also well known that Dr. Fiefield is taking advantage of his religion, a head of the Congregational Church, to help Shell in his campaign for Republican Governor of California, with its high electoral vote, needed by Kennedy in the next election. This division in the Republican Party will insure that Brown, now endorsed by Kennedy, will remain in office. This, I know, you are against. My belief is that you were unknowingly trapped into making the statement against only Nixon.

During the last National Campaign, Nixon advised the Republican Organization, never under any circumstances to bring religion into the campaign. It was not. But Kennedy combed the woods to obtain the Catholic vote.

Dan, another thing you must consider, if you will be true to yourself, is never to travel into another state and tell the voters who to support. Any state will resent the action and what you and your wife have struggled for, will fall like a house on sand - for the wave to take away its foundation.

I do not advise you what to do. You will know. All I can say is, that you cannot leave undone the thing you must do.

Sincerely,

Charles A. Zweng

Dear Mr. Zeigler:

Dick Nixon has asked me to express his thanks for your thoughtfulness in writing him about the Christensen campaign.

Unfortunately, your letter did not reach us in time for us to get this explanation back to you before the breakfast meeting planned today at the Olympic Hotel. However, the policy we have had to establish would have prevented the requested wire being sent, since there can be no involvement in out-of-state campaigns.

We feel certain you will understand what we believe to be the only fair and just method of handling this and many other similar requests.

With kind regards and good wishes.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

Dear Mr. Zweng:

This is to follow up our recent correspondence concerning your kind invitation to Mr. Nixon to address the future Engineers of America, San Fernando Valley Council, in May. I regretfully must tell you that the efforts of the Schedule Committee to clear a date when he could meet with your group have not been successful. Consequently, he will not have the pleasure of accepting your cordial invitation.

We understand fully the necessity for you to go ahead and schedule a speaker for this fine event, and we are extremely sorry that Mr. Nixon will be unable to meet with your group.

Thank you again for your thoughtful invitation.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

Dear Mr. Zweng:

Thank you for your kind letter of January 19th inviting Mr. Nixon to address the Future Engineers of America, San Fernando Valley Council, some evening in May.

We are turning your invitation over to the Schedule Committee for consideration at an early meeting, and you will be hearing from us just as soon as possible. Certainly we hope something can be worked out for him to meet with your group at a mutually convenient time.

We very much appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing.
