August 30, 1962

Dear Mr. Mosher:

We appreciate your letter of August 29th, and regret our answer must be as it is.

Since Dick Nixon is himself a candidate for Governor of California, a policy was established from the beginning that there could be no involvement in other campaigns, in state or out of state. We have not deviated from this policy and of course cannot do so in fairness to all concerned.

I trust you will understand and appreciate the circumstances which preclude Dick writing the letter to be read at the dinner which will kick-off Congressman Hall's campaign September 10th.

With kind regards and best wishes.

Dear Mr. Haldeman:

Friends of Congressman Durward G. Hall are sponsoring a dinner to kick off his re-election campaign to be held the evening of September 10th at Riverside Inn in Ozark, Missouri.

Vice President Nixon visited Springfield, Missouri, during the 1960 campaign and our Congressional District gave him a 60,000 vote majority in that election. The Vice President's presence also was a major factor in Congressman Hall's election. It would be most appreciated if Mr. Nixon would send a letter to be read at the dinner urging Congressman Hall's re-election and containing whatever additional comments he might see fit to add. The letter should be addressed to Mr. Gene Taylor, Chairman, Hall for Congress Committee, Sarcoxie, Missouri. Please note the September 10 deadline.

With appreciation,

Sincerely,

Dear Father Monagle:

I have long had an admiring interest in the activities and accomplishments of the Catholic Youth Organization, and I certainly compliment you on the fine leadership and direction you are giving to this important work in the Northern Counties of California.

The young people of our state and nation represent our greatest strength and our richest hope for the future. Consequently, the CYO program, which can do so much to assure the moral and physical soundness of the minds and bodies of the youth of your area, as well as prepare them for the responsibilities of adult citizenship which will soon be theirs, takes on special significance and importance -- and all the more so since it serves young people, without regard to race, color or religion.

You may be sure you have my very best wishes for the ever-widening and increasing success of your efforts.

In order to keep faith with my long-standing policy of not participating in any way in community fund-raising projects during the period I am a candidate for public office, however, I shall have to ask that my endorsement of your program not be used in the brochure you are currently preparing. I hope you can understand the wisdom and necessity for such a course of action.

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

The Reverend John F. Monagle
Director
Catholic Youth Organization

Re: Santa Rosa CYO and Father Monagle - he regrets decision, interprets turn-down as Richard Nixon's non-support of worthy charity. We advise immediate letter from RN to Monagle as follows:

"This will reply to your request for a letter from me to your organization endorsing and encouraging the good work of the Catholic Youth Organization.

It goes without saying that the Catholic Youth Organization, through its program of aid and encouragement to children regardless of race, color, or religious belief, is making a significant and meaningful contribution to society.

I do fully endorse this effort - in fact any effort - which brings both material and spiritual benefits to youngsters of less fortunate means. By helping children through their younger difficult years, by encouraging them to develop their full capabilities, you are serving to make them useful and valuable members of our society. In this day and age of conflict, it is always heartening to see such groups as yours at work, dedicated to preparing our younger generation to better meet tomorrow's challenge.

I understand from your letter that you are preparing a brochure about the work of the CYO. Despite my full endorsement of your program, I must request that you not use my name in the brochure. We are in an election and I am still speaking as a private citizen. In order to avoid any religious connotation whatsoever entering the campaign, I have adopted a general policy which precludes a public endorsement of this type.

However, you may be assured of my support for the Catholic Youth Organization, and after the campaign is over, you may use this endorsement in any appropriate way.

Mr. Nixon has asked me to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of July 26th, and to explain the circumstances which preclude his complying with your request.

Unfortunately, because of his position as a candidate for Governor of the state of California, Mr. Nixon is unable to take action regarding endorsement by the Republican Party of a candidate in another state.

We are, however, taking the liberty of sending your letter to the Republican National Committee with the request that they communicate directly with you insofar as any action they feel would be appropriate in this particular instance.

Dear Mr. Nixon:

In your exclusive interview with Ebony Magazine published in April 1962, you outlined tersely and with common sense and feeling what the republicans must do to regain the Negro vote. We believe that we have a tailored-to-order proposition that might give them just such an opportunity and can well mean the difference between their control or failure to control the next congress and indeed the next White House. A lot will depend on who carries the South, so long traditionall democratic and almost devoid of the two party system.

The honorable Z. Alexander Looby a distinguished Negro lawyer, has been drafted by the Tennessee Voters Council as their candidate for a seat on the Supreme Court Justice's Bench of Tennessee. Rather than welcoming this entry into the contest as a democratic right exercised and in the best traditions of the liberties we all seek, the democratic party dominated Nashville Bar Association let loose a below-the-belt fight against the goodly gentleman.

Their basic argument being that the nominees of the democratic party ought to have been elected without opposition. Such a statement heard in Moscow, Peking, Belgrade or Warsaw would have been unworthy of comment; but in Nashville, the Athens of the South, it raises loud questions both of expediency and intent. The Association left no mistaken impression but that their chief anxiety was the possibility of a Negro being elected to the office. Hence their proposed approach for laying the case before the public.

2

Attorney Looby is one of the best known Negroes in the South, indeed the entire U.S.A., and any active support by the Republican party to have him elected or to further his candidacy could not be unrewarded with reciprocal voting courtesy. We are hoping that the republicans in the interest of a strong two party system and in their own efforts to gain strength in the forth coming congressional election will not overlook this request for support.

We should greatly appreciate your party's endorsement of Dr. Z. Alexander Looby for the August 2, 1962 election. Relevant information on the candidate is enclosed.

Respectfully yours,

L. S. Lewis,

Dear Bob:

Your letter of July 2nd to Dick Nixon was received by his office while he was in Denmark and referred to me for reply.

I was delighted to learn you are running for State Senate and you certainly have my best wishes.

As I am sure you will understand, however, there has had to be a firm policy established of no involvement in out-of-state campaigns, which of course precludes Dick writing the letter you suggest. As a matter of fact, there has been no involvement within the state insofar as other campaigns have been concerned. This seems to be the only fair and just method of handling the many requests which he receives for endorsements.

I know Dick will appreciate your letter and let me know how things are going.

Dear Mr. Nixon:

Your thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of "Six Crises" is much appreciated. Naturally I read the part about the 1960 campaign first. As one of your "advance men", I have re-lived that experience many times, and I was anxious to read the story as you saw it.

If you have a moment to do so, I would appreciate your doing me a great honor. As the enclosed clipping indicates, I have filed for my first try at public office, following the death of an incumbent State Senator. If you felt that you could send me a brief letter of encouragement which I could use on the fly-leaf of my brochures, I would indeed be deeply grateful.

I enjoyed the momentary meeting we had at the Sun Valley conference last fall, when Bill Black and I were standing at the bar as you passed through. I am sure all of your old team are pulling for you, and wish they were there to help.

This is just a note to advise you of a messy political situation in Queens County, New York. The Republican Organization has nominated George Archinal for the new Seventh Congressional District. He is being opposed by an insurgent named Roger K. Brickner. The organization is 100% behind Archinal. I understand Brickner intends to contact the Vice President seeking some form of support or endorsement.

Please be careful about the way this situation is handled. I am supporting George Archinal.

Dear Mr. Nixon:

My hearty congratulations on your successful primary election of June 5th. Your victory not only preserves the basic values of our Republican Party but is a renewed inspiration for the millions of your admirers across the nation.

Back here in Queens County in New York State, many were elated at your California victory. In my campaign headquarters (I am a candidate for the Republican Congressional nomination in the new 7th District) people came in congratulating US for your victory! I can assure you there are many Nixon Republicans here in Queens.

As you well know, the conduct of a party primary campaign is a grueling task. Being a schoolteacher my ability to reward my workers and supporters is limited. Perhaps you can help. I have read about the autographed cards you were distributing in California. If any of these are left over from the campaign I assure you that they could be used to good advantage back here as token rewards.

Later, as our campaign picks up momentum, I will be happy to keep you informed of developments if you have a moment from time to time to take a measure of the Republican progress in the 7th C. D. of New York.

Best wishes for success in the battle against the Democrats in November.

Sincerely,
