The above data, of course, is only part of the voting record of the 11th Assembly District incumbent. We sincerely urge that careful study and thought be given to this information. We particularly urge that you consult various staff personnel for comparative information within your own firm, based upon 1958, 1960 and projections for 1962 taxes levied against your operations in the 11th Assembly District.

Respectfully Submitted,

Joe Willey, Chairman
Special Research Committee,
West Contra Costa
REPUBLICAN ASSEMBLY

NOTE #1 - We recommend you request the director of the Contra Costa County Department of Social Welfare to provide you with information on how these bills affect your tax base.

NOTE #2 - We recommend you ask your company or trade association legislative director for details on how this legislation will affect your business.

THE FIRST STEP

The first step toward definitive action is organization.

The author proposes that business and industry join in creating a hard-hitting campaign organization to utilize all existing systems of political action.

To successfully elect a friendly successor to the somewhat entrenched incumbent will require the services of a political specialist to manage a professional campaign. Together with the candidate, the manager would have to coordinate the activities of an executive campaign committee of four principal directors: Finance, Volunteer Political Groups, Neighborhood Campaign Workers and Community Support Groups.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Finance Committee Chairman would be responsible for establishing a system of receiving campaign donations, a running audit, and disbursement of funds from a pre-established budget. He would preside over the finance committee, comprising a chairman for business and industrial solicitations, and a chairman for precinct campaign fund solicitations.

VOLUNTEER POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS

The director for volunteer political organizations should be responsible for recruitment of neighborhood campaign workers from among the three Republican Assembly units, seven California Federation of Republican Womens' clubs and three Young Republican organizations now established in the new Eleventh Assembly District. These volunteer partisan groups would also be requested to provide a platform from which the candidate may make public his views on campaign issues. Manpower for staffing campaign headquarters, typing, door-to-door fund drives, etc., may also be procured from these groups of Republican volunteers.

NEIGHBORHOOD CAMPAIGN GROUPS

The Neighborhood Groups director would be responsible for maintaining a cross-index record of the names, addresses, phone numbers, precinct numbers and party registration of all volunteer workers. He would receive his data from two main sources: the director of the Volunteer Political Organizations, and the candidate himself, who will strive to obtain volunteers on a block-by-block basis during the course of the campaign. The Neighborhood Groups director would be assisted by two chairmen: Clerical committee, which would recruit volunteers for mass clerical chores; and Neighborhood block workers, who would distribute campaign literature and graphic materials and make door-to-door contacts in behalf of the candidate.

COMMUNITY SUPPORT GROUPS

The Community Support Groups director would coordinate the activities of five chairmen: Service Club Campaign Activities, Professional Group Campaign Activities, Business and Industrial Group Campaign Activities, Labor Group Campaign Activities and Church Group Campaign Activities. Through this directorate, efforts would be made to get the candidate before as many of these groups as possible. Each chairman would be asked to list each organization within his area of responsibility in the Eleventh Assembly District. He would be asked to enlist as a member of his committee a representative from each of those groups so listed. All such representatives would be asked to keep his chairman informed of potential opportunities available to the candidate which might contribute toward a successful campaign. Written reports of all such information would be immediately forwarded to the candidate.

oOo

Establishment of the above organization must commence within the next few weeks.

Some commitment of funds for campaign purposes must be made within the next few days if the campaign is to succeed.

Dear Mr. Scholz:

Dick Nixon has asked me to express his thanks for your thoughtfulness in writing him about the Testimonial Dinner planned for gubernatorial candidate, Newman Marsilius.

As in many other instances, firm policy rulings must be made and strictly followed, in fairness to all concerned. In this case, the policy is that there will be no involvement in out-of-state campaigns, which of course precludes sending the requested message to Mr. Marsilius on April 30th.

We feel certain you will understand what we believe to be the only fair and just method of handling this and many other similar requests.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

H. R. Haldeman

Dear Mr. Nixon:

On Monday, April 30, friends, neighbors and associates of Newman Marsilius, a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Connecticut, will tender a testimonial dinner in his honor.

As you will note from the enclosed material, Mr. Marsilius has rendered distinguished service to his community, his state and the nation; as a businessman, he has taken an active and important part in the political process.

It would add immeasurably to the significance of the occasion if we could read a message from you commending his civic and political contributions and wishing him well in his candidacy. May we count on you for this favor?

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Zeigler:

Dick Nixon has asked me to express his thanks for your thoughtfulness in writing him about the Christensen campaign.

Unfortunately, your letter did not reach us in time for us to get this explanation back to you before the breakfast meeting planned today at the Olympic Hotel. However, the policy we have had to establish would have prevented the requested wire being sent, since there can be no involvement in out-of-state campaigns.

We feel certain you will understand what we believe to be the only fair and just method of handling this and many other similar requests.

With kind regards and good wishes.

INTER-OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Nixon for Governor

To: H. R. Haldeman

Date: April 20, 1962

From: Loie Gaunt lgg

Subject: attached message request from State of Washington

Distribution:

If Christensen has any primary competition, am sure wire should not be sent. Source and time to check that part out, I do not have.

If you determine that wire should be sent and will have Dorothy let me know, I could send one along lines of: Greatly pleased with reports of the vigor and enthusiasm of your campaign for the U.S. Senate. I know you will keep up ~~the~~ the good work. Best wishes for success, Regards, Dick Nixon -- or whatever you suggest.

However, if no wire to go, would like to leave in your hands to either ignore or TD over your signature.

Jack Zeigler has been active in RN campaigns in the past; how much and how effectively, I do not know.

Dear Mr. Nixon:

The Christensen Campaign is gathering real momentum!

A spectacular event, a well-attended breakfast meeting, to meet and hear "Dick", will be held on Tuesday, April 24th. at 7:30 A. M. in the Georgian Room of the Olympic Hotel, Seattle, Washington. One thousand invitations have been issued to concerned individuals in this area.

Dick is campaigning vigorously and is gathering strength everywhere in his fight to unseat Warren G. Magnuson, U. S. Senator of Washington State, Democrat.

A wire of encouragement from a person of your political stature would be most welcome. This will be greatly appreciated by Dick and the rest of us, devoted to working for him to win.

Sincerely yours,

Jack Zeigler
