THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Staff Director to Mrs. Nixon

WAITING FOR SANTA: The three White House dogs, King Timahoe, Vicki, and Pasha, wait for Santa Claus outside their house on the South Lawn of the White House. King Timahoe is the President's dog given to him by his staff in 1969. He is a one-year-old Irish Setter. Vicki, a silver poodle is eight years old and is Julie Nixon Eisenhower's dog. Pasha, a three-year-old Yorkshire Terrier, is Tricia's dog.
