May 28, 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. H. R. HALDEMAN
FROM: ALEXANDER P. BUTTERFIELD
SUBJECT: Fina's Niece

I believe that for a while we can forget the subject of "Fina's niece".

Manolo tells me that the young girl is no longer interested in working for the local security police in that she has heard recently of some secretarial job opportunities at a large American oil company headquartered nearby. It is my understanding that Bebe and an oil executive friend of his are about to leave for Spain (or perhaps they are already there), and that Bebe will give the girl's desires his personal attention. I mean, he will give his personal attention to the girl's desires. No, dammit, what I really mean is that he will put the project to bed ... that is to say, he'll lend a hand. Oh, I give up! It has been a long day and I can't seem to think what I'm saying. I mean, think what I mean.

I'll report back to you later.
