MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 8, 1972

ADMINISTRATIVELY CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. CHUCK COLSON
FROM: BRUCE KEHRLI Bok
SUBJECT: Jews

The August 8 News Summary contained the following note:

-- The President of the American Jewish Congress has urged fellow Jewish leaders to refrain from endorsing or attacking WH candidates. Rabbi Hartsberg said "the record of both Dem and GOP Presidents and Parties shows no real division on the issues of Israel and sympathy for Soviet Jewry." --

Referring to the above, it was requested that our Israeli friends be told coldly that they can't have it both ways.

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 8, 1972

ADMINISTRATIVELY CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. CHUCK COLSON
FROM: BRUCE KEHRLI BK
SUBJECT: Press Coverage

The August 8 News Summary contained the following note:

-- Comments of Braden, Reston, McGrory and Kraft are cited as Newsweek asserts that "if anything, the coverage of the McG campaign so far has demonstrated unmistakably that the press is beholden to no one." --

It was noted that this is only an attempt to justify the vicious attacks they will make on us.
