Honorable John Dean
Assistant Deputy Attorney General
for Legislation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear John:

My sincerest congratulations to you on the great appointment. I can't think of anyone who is better trained to do the job in your new assignment. I know that you must be very pleased to be there.

To bring you up to date here, I am now County Attorney for St. Joseph County, Indiana, and in addition to my private practice, have joined the Notre Dame Law School as a member of their faculty. I am teaching, of all things, Real Property, which since we suffered through it together, you will remember was not our very favorite course. However, since I have been teaching the course, I have grown to enjoy it tremendously and find the subject matter and teaching in general to be very enjoyable.

Concerning the political scene, I am remaining extremely active in regard to the political scene and it is not at all unlikely that I might be a candidate again in 1970. This by no means should indicate that the decision has been made, what it does indicate is that I believe that the congressional nomination here is worth something and I believe that the congressional seat is winable for the Republican party. By all means, if you have any close contacts with the Congressional Committee, put in a plug for me, and perhaps, with their assistance, and your assistance I can make it back to Washington in 1970. But, who knows what the future will hold. I don't know when I will be in Washington again, but I certainly hope that we might be able to have lunch, and I could bring you up to date on all that is going on. Please drop around and say hello to Bill Ruckelshaus, who as you probably know, is a good friend and was the finest candidate for political office anywhere last year. Two more weeks for the campaign, and he would be the Indiana Senator.

All the best for continued success to you and your wife,

The Honorable John W. Dean, III
Associate Deputy Attorney General (Legislation)
Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear John:

Belated congratulations on your appointment to high public office. I trust that you will remember that public office is a public trust. I knew that you were "in" when a fairly senior FBI agent called me several days ago and asked for a reference. I told him the only bad thing I knew was that you were a Republican. This was probably my first criminal offense since Inauguration Day but I will count on you to shelter me from justice!

With every good wish to you and all the Deans, I am,

Sincerely,

J. D. Williams

Dear John:

Congratulations on your appointment as Associate Deputy Attorney General for Legislation. It sounds very exciting, and I know that you will do a good job.

I know it sounds trite, but it couldn't happen to a nicer guy.

Best,

Kami

The only disadvantage to your appointment I can see at all is that I no longer feel quite comfortable simply calling you "John".

Dear John,
many congratulations upon your recent honor!
A more fortunate selection for this position could not have been made. In fact, all of your friends are saying that it is a stroke of genius on the mixer's part.

Dear John:

My congratulations and very best wishes on your new position. I was extremely gratified to see the President and the Attorney General make such an appointment. I know from my close personal experience and working with you that there probably isn't anyone today who is so well versed in the field of legislation, statutory drafting, and the legislative process as yourself. I also know that not only your competence but also your practical experience in such matters will be invaluable to the administration and to the Department of Justice in particular.

My only regret is that I am afraid your new position will be so demanding that our extra curricular activities will be curtailed greatly. I hope this isn't true. If ever there is anything I can do, please let me know. Martha sends her congratulations as well.

Best to Karla and little John.

Yours very truly,

Thomas F. Hogan
