DAVID M. BARRETT
GENERAL COUNSEL

Mr. John Dean III
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear John:

I read in the Wall Street Journal this morning that you have moved to a new position at the White House. I hope this letter reaches you there. Best congratulations and it looks like an interesting opportunity combined with your experience on the Hill and in Justice. All you need now is a judgeship and you will have all branches.

As you may know, I came to Tulsa last January after deciding not to run this year. It is a long story and when I see you in person I will fill you in. My interest in politics has not diminished and I am working for Dick Roudebush in Indiana as well as Don Newman in Indiana's Third. Don has an excellent chance to beat Brademas.

I saw Tom Hogan at our annual Judge Jones reunion. He is enjoying his law practice very much. I wonder if you get a chance to fish and hunt with Irving and Austin. If you should be heading this way, plan on staying with us.

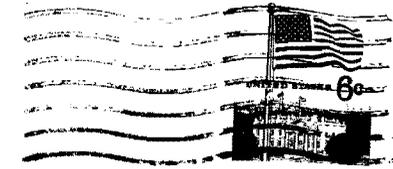

All the best,

David M. Barrett

Dear Dino:

I was very pleased to read in this morning's edition of the Wall Street Journal the fact that you have been appointed to the President's White House staff. Reading of your appointment called to mind the many conversations we had at college when we discussed what young men might do to improve government. I had known of your service in the Justice Department, but I had not known of your recent appointment. I hope that your efforts in your new position will help us solve some of the problems that currently face us.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Hugh L. Black

Dear John:

My heartiest congratulations on your appointment! I was delighted to hear the news and can vouch for the aptness of the choice; I'm sure you'll acquit yourself admirably.

Best of luck in what will undoubtedly be a very challenging and rewarding position.

Cordially,

John Fiorini

P.S. I'm clerking here for the summer; one more year of school to go. Law school is interesting, but I don't think I'll be too sad when it's over!

Dear John:

I was delighted to read several days ago of your appointment as Counsel to the President. This is indeed good news in two ways. First, it represents to you such a fine opportunity and challenge and second, the President shall be able to rely on a person of such high talents and integrity as you possess.

My heartiest congratulations!

Sincerely,

Robert J. Chapman

Dear John:

Although I promptly phoned my "congrats" to your secretary on the day your appointment was announced, I have been delayed in writing to congratulate you for two reasons. Number one, I have been busy with my practice which, fortunately, is growing, and secondly I have been in consultation with my engravers to see if I can amend my professional cards to carry the designation -- "Counsel to the Counsel to the President."

We now have our Tax Court actions consolidated and assigned to Washington, D. C. for trial. I anticipate that the trial will occur in the early fall. My hope is to have all the evidence stipulated since the matter turns, it appears to me, on a legal issue. A couple of district courts have recently held for the taxpayers and as near as I can tell, the Tax Court is still adhering to its earlier decision in Bray.

I want you to come by and see our new offices which I hope we will have completed by the end of this month. It takes a long time to hang pictures, etc.

Also, I have been intending to call and see if you would like for Johnny to play with Walter some Sunday in our back yard. We have a big one with two swings and a ladder, so let us know if you want to come out with Johnny.

Best wishes.

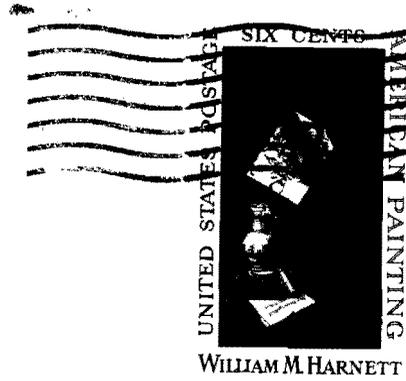

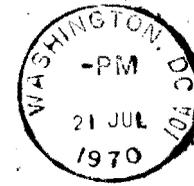

Sincerely,

J. D. Williams

Dear John,

I have recently applied for a sales position with Spot-Bilt Incorporated.

I talked with Phil Stackpole (Sales manager) this evening, and he requested that in order to expedite his decision in regard to my employment I write you personally for a recommendation. (He is presently on vacation) He stated that he will be back at his desk no later than August 6th so if you could give your judgement of me by that date it would be ever so much appreciated. This looks like a wonderful opportunity for me in a line of work that I would truly enjoy. Mr. Stackpole's address is as follows: Spot-Bilt Inc., 432 Columbia Street,

Cambridge, Mass. 02141.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

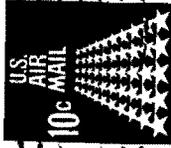

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

Gene

P.S. John — Congratulations on your recent appointment. This is a great honor and I am sure there will be more for you in the future. Hope you are well!
Thanks again.
