MEMORANDUM FOR CLARK MacGREGOR
FROM JOHN EHRLICHMAN
SUBJECT ED McDANIEL

During the 1960 and 1968 Nixon campaigns, Ed McDaniel was the travelling sound man. He did a superb job, is extremely loyal and dedicated to the President and did the 1968 tour without salary. He had been doing quite a bit of work for the Republican National Committee (about $150,000 a year); however, after the 1968 election, he lost the account. During the 1972 primaries in New Hampshire and Florida, he was asked to do some rallies on very short notice but has not participated in any other activities. Evidently, the people at 1701 have not responded to his proposals for work.

In talking with Ed, I find him an extremely bitter Republican who will probably vote the Republican ticket but only as a personal commitment to the President. During my last conversation with him, he sounded like he wouldn't take a job even if it were now offered, but hopefully this thinking can be reversed.

Would it be possible to get a breakdown from someone at the Committee for the Re-election of any correspondence with Ed and any proposals that he has submitted, along with reasons why they were turned down?

Clark, I wouldn't push on this except Ed is an extremely capable person and it would be a shame to lose him on grounds other than professional capability.
