Mr. Ken W. Clawson
Deputy Director of Communications
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Clawson:

You will find it hard to believe the attached copy of a letter from publisher Marshall Field of the Chicago Daily News. It is in answer to my letter regarding a misleading News headline.

When a publisher admits this kind of bias by his editorial staff, it is difficult to believe the credibility of the news media.

While I realize our goal is to re-elect President Nixon and to avoid attacks on the press, no doubt Vice President Agnew would be interested in this letter from Marshall Field.

Sincerely,
