ADMINISTRATIVELY CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR:

H. R. HALDEMAN

FROM:

GORDON STRACHAN S

SUBJECT:

Lists in Pennsylvania

Higby received a report that our Executive Director in Pennsylvania, named McGinty or McGooley, was refusing to pay CRP personnel until they delivered precinct lists to him, allegedly for Don Rumsfeld's use.

Gordon Gooch, the CRP Regional Director for Pennsylvania, examined the facts and reported the following:

- 1) The CRP Finance Committee member McGlenn paid all CRP employees, without demanding copies of lists;
- 2) The Acting Executive Director Steinberg confirmed there were no plans or attempts to collect all lists from the county headquarters which used the lists during the campaign;
- 3) McGlenn has "his nose out of joint" because he is hated by Arlen Specter;
- 4) Pennsylvania's campaign for the President was fraught with intra-party and personality disputes. Rumors were rampant and frequently attributable to personal animosities.
