THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

ADMINISTRATIVELY CONFIDENTIAL

September 19, 1972

MEMORANDUM FOR:

H. R. HALDEMAN

FROM:

GORDON STRACHAN S

SUBJECT:

H. Ross Perot

He called you today to ask for a brief meeting with you tomorrow morning. I told him I would check.

Perot has still not contributed to the 1972 campaign to re-elect President Nixon, according to Tom Evans. Perot has called Evans, indicated he wanted to see him about contributing, but reviewed his laments at length:

- 1) Perot is "less than enchanted by the treatment he receives from the White House Staff, but he likes the President".
- 2) Perot wants a "signal directly from Haldeman" as to whether the Administration wants Perot to contribute in light of charges of favoritism, etc. He suggested to Evans a post-election contribution.

As you may recall from the extensive study done on Perot in January 1972, he has contributed nothing and received a great deal. Instead of telling Perot to "put up or shut up" (a view which Butterfield, Cole, Higby and I periodically favor), I should advise Perot that you will not see him but encourage him to meet with Tom Evans.
