MEMORANDUM FOR:

OLLIE ATKINS

FROM:

BRUCE KEHRLI

I just wanted to congratulate you on the excellent set of pictures of the wedding now displayed in the West Basement. I have noticed quite a few impromptu tours this past week and have heard nothing but raves about the photographs.

The exhibit makes having an office here in the basement an added pleasure.

MEMORANDUM FOR: H. R. HALDEMAN
FROM: BRUCE KEHRLI
SUBJECT: Movies

I understand there is a chance you will go to Camp David this weekend, and if so, we can start now to procure a couple of movies for you to see. I think you still have the list of films that are available, and if you would like to make your selection, they can be sent up this weekend if available.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

H. R. HALDEMAN

FROM:

BRUCE KEHRLI

SUBJECT:

Clem Stone

Chuck Colson indicates that there is no problem with Clem Stone regretting the Nixon wedding. He is going to the Greek Islands, a trip he had planned for quite a while and, in fact, called Chuck before he regretted to get his advice on what to do.

Evidently missed weddings are not unusual for Stone as he missed his own daughter's for some reason or other.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

CONNIE STUART

FROM:

H. R. HALDEMAN

Congratulations! The Wedding and all the pre and post activities came off beautifully. The planning and execution could not have been handled any better - a real tribute to you and your staff.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

CONNIE STUART

FROM:

BRUCE KEHRLI

Just a note to congratulate you on the exceptionally fine job you and your staff did on the wedding. You combined just the right amounts of precision and spontaneity so the end result was nothing short of spectacular, yet always in very good taste.

Dear Taft:

Thank you for your note of May 28, 1971.

I think, somehow, our messages got crossed during your recent visit here as I merely wanted to say hello. Although we didn't have much time to talk, I enjoyed seeing you again and trust you will stop in the next time you are in the area.

Sincerely,

H.R. Haldeman
Assistant to the President
