Aug. 8 1974

Dear Tom: Well, I figured you might be a bit blue considering what is about to happen tonight (the fact Nixon is going to announce his candidacy for 1976) and thought you might be in need of a libation, or at least a cheering miscive. Do down one or two for me at your favorite bar & grill (sorry about the Twilight being so distant) and charge to my Evans phone company credit card, which is conventintly out of date. What the hell, put it on my library card.

You guys just wouldn't listen to me. I kept passing word along through Glen telling you to leak word each week that Mr. N would indeed resign that week. This would send stock mart up 25 points each week; after thirty weeks or so we would be back at 1,000 on the Dow Jones, and you know that as the Dow goes, so goes the nation. Ergo, we would all be saved. Well, as I always say. buy Syntex, and sell when you get word the Pope is to speak on contraception. Same thing--a matter of not get'ing scre--d.

Tom, I am truly sorry it all ends thusly. Hope you are in good shape with Ford, or at least with General Motors, or maybe American Motors. Just think how it would be if you had decided to run for US Senate this time round. You would be broker than Owens, and I don't mean Gordon Owens. There is always a job for you at the Boise ABC station, or even Pocatello, if you don't mind taking a cut to about $11,000 and working on sales commission. Seriously, if you have any problems in which I can prove helpful, don't hesitate to holler, although I am sure by now you have built a firmer supply of contacts than you left in SLC.

On a more personal note, all our kids and their hubbies are due tonight-- Don Rosenblatt's daughter is being wed tomorrow, so much partying etc. I've been painting in my spare time, and on Aug. 17 or so, Nathaniel and I have a father-son art display on the streets of Park City, in case you are in the market for great paintings. Marge and I still talk of getting back to Washington DC appx Oct. 1 for opening of Hirshhorn collection, at which old college chum of mine named Al Lerner is director-curator. If so, would hope to see you. Keep us informed of plans. Best to Joyce and keep that kid's hand out of the wringer. See you on the hill--and I do mean Alta. Sincerely

Jack G.
