TO: Bessie Newton
FROM: Rose Mary Woods

I spoke with Mrs. Nixon yesterday about the attached gift (scarf) and record which came from Claude Levesque of 44 Avenue de New York, Paris 16.

As you will note from the typed copy of this letter from him - he seems to feel he has known them before. However, he thought he had met me too and I do not remember him at all. He is a nice young man - about 40ish - but I would guess has maybe had a breakdown or some illness. Would you please prepare a brief, polite but not too warm note from Mrs. Nixon because I BELIEVE THIS fellow is going to be coming to Washington later and we don't want to get stuck with him. (I did not tell her about his coming, etc. -- but I do think we should not be too warm in thanking him).

I would appreciate your sending the gifts on up to her as I said I would do.

THANKS

(See you soon, I hope)
